When the boundaries at the time of notification cannot, pending final demarcation in detail, be described with sufficient accuracy for the purposes of a definite boundary register, an amending notification should issue as soon as the information hecomes available on final demarcation and survey.*
  - (ii) At the time of reservation a complete abstract enteration of the rights to which the reserve has been declared subject should be prepared, and either published in the Gazette together with the notification or printed separately, as the Local Government may decide. A copy of every such notification and abstract will be kept for each Forest Division in a bound volume, to be called the Register of Reserved Forests; and each notification, with the corresponding enumeration of rights, will be numbered separately according to the date from which the reservation takes effect. The register for each forest will commence with an area statement in Form No. 1, and several pages of the volume will be allotted to it, so as to afford space for additions or corrections. It is desirable that a sketch map on a small scale should form part of a record for each reserve

(iu) The amount of detail requisite in the compilation of the Working-plans will depend upon the demands which are made on the forests, the nature and value of the produce removed from them, and the other purposes which they are to fulfil

(iv) Where the demand exceeds or even equals the possible outturn, Working-plans must be prepared with the greatest minuteness, and everything must be arranged so as to obtain the highest outturn which the forest is capable of returning under the most careful management. Where, on the other hand, the demand is as yet below the ordinary capability of the forest, a more simple and expeditious procedure may be followed.

(v) With a view to bringing all important forests, for whose produce a demand exists or is likely to arise in the near future as soon as possible, under systematic management, the first Working-plans may be of a simple description and based on such data as may be readily obtainable, to be succeeded by more accurate plans as the detailed information required for their preparation becomes available.

(vi) The officer who prepares a Working-plan will be held responsible for the accuracy of the statistical information it contains : provided that in cases where the conditions are such that the collection and record of such information can safely be entrusted to his subordinates, the names of such subordinates shall be mentioned in the Working-plans Report. The Working-plans Officer must, under

(iv) It should be clearly understood that the fact that a paticular sum in excess of the hindget grant has been entered in the Revised Estimate of charges is no authority for exceeding the budget limit of expenditure. The authority for any such excess expenditure should be separately obtained by an additional grant under article 130 as soon as the occasion for any new or increased expenditure arises, and quite apart from a consideration of the Revised Estimate an additional grant heigh the only authority for expenditure in excess of the Budget Estimate the Government of India assume, in the absence of special reasons to the contrary, that any such excess, included in the Revised Estimate but not already covered by an additional grant, cannot be a correct forecast of the probable expenditure (Vide Circular No. 5 F., dated 21st Maich 1895, printed as Appendix XXI.)

Annual Reports and Returns

- (iv) In compiling the report the following principles should be strictly followed:—
- 1 The maximum limit of 20 pages of print should be printed at the heading of the table of contents and it should not be exceeded miless the writer bas previously obtained the permission of the Local Government to exceed it in a particular year.
- 2. The report should contain only the explanation of really important or suggestive variations in the statistics, and the statement of really noteworthy facts in the history of the year's administration
- 3 No mere paraphraing and reproduction of the statistics should be allowed in the report
- 4 All attempts to offer explanations of variations in the figures, which are not important or uninead, should be excluded unless the fact alleged in explanation is in itself important enough to demand mention
- 5. The idea that it is necessary to say something should be discarded, and it should be recognised that the briefer seport is the better, provided that it says all that is needed for an intelligent comprehension of the meaning of the facts and figures and of the salient features of the year's works
- 6 The introduction into the text of large numbers of tables of statis its (usually a reproduction in on alriaged forto of the statistics in the appendices) detracts from the value and interest of a report while it greatly increases the cust of printing it. The body of the Report should be almost enlirely in nurrefuce form. It will occasionally be necessary to introduce tables of comparative statistics into the nurretive, but each tables should be brief and simple and their number rigidly re tricted.
- 7 The number of maps or diagrams should be restricted, they should be placed at the beginning or end of the volume
- 8 Tables of statistics should not be printed eide-ways on a page inle s distinct economy of space thereby re ults. The foolscap size lends itself easily to the printing of tables with their heading acro's instead of along the length of the page.
- 9 Pages of tabular matter should not be printed with the columns left entirely or almost entirely blank
- 10 It is seldom necessary to give in full detail and in separate columns in tables of statistics the corresponding figures for the preceding year. In most cases it will be found sufficient to give corresponding figures for the totals only, by means of one additional line at the foot of the table.
- 11. Cross references between the statistical tables and the paragraphs discussing them should be given by means of marginal entries on the paragraphs and, if possible, also on the tables themselves.
  - 12 The directions of the Government of India that reports should be prioted in solid pica and extracted matter and appendices in * small pica should be strictly followed.

CHAPTER L.

CONSTITUTION OF STATE FORESTS

1. ALTERATION IN ARES.

This section should give concisely the areas added or excluded during the year together with the reasons for additions and exclusions. The following four classes of forests should be dealt with (if existing in the Circles)—(i) Reserved, (ii) Protected, (iii) Unclassed or Public Forest Land and (iv) Leased Forests

2. Forest SETTLEMENTS.

The progress made in Forest Settlements will be recorded, the area finally settled during the year, that under settlement and the cost and agency employed. An estimate of the area still to be settled chould be added, together with soggestions for the future

3 DEMARCATION.

The length of boundary demandated and repaired during the year should be noted, differentiating between external and internal boundaires. The method employed and its cost per mile should be stated and an estimate be made of the work still to be done

4. FOREST SURVEYS

A short report by the Superintendent, Forest Surveys, should, where necessary, be entered here, followed by a brief notice of local surveys if undertaken. The section should close with an estimate of the amount of survey work still outstanding.

The chapter should end with a statement of the total expenditure under the head "Constitution of State Forests."

CHAPTER II

MANAGEMENT OF STATE FORESTS

1. REGULATION OF MANAGEMENT.

(a) - Preparation and Control of Regular Working-Plans.

Under "Preparation" should be mentioned the area for which new Working-Plans were sanctioned during the year and the area for which &quot; Statistical appendices may be printed in small pica or in any of the smaller kinds of type-bourgoor, brever, minion or nonpared at may be found convenient." Home Department Circular No 643-651 dated 7th March 1905,

1-REGULATION OF MANAGEMENT-(concluded)

Working Plans were in compilation In each case the system of working prescribed or proposed should be recorded, and, in the case of completed plans, the cost per equare mile Under "Coutrol" it should be mentioned whether the pre-criptions of existing plans were carried out, and important deviations should be explained and the authority therefor stated

Revisions of Working Plans should next be noted and the sub-section should close with an estimate of the area for which Working-Plans are still required and a list of Plans which will lapse within the next three years

(6)-Preliminary Working-Plan Reports

A brief notice of the reports submitted or under compilation should here be entered

(c)-Plans of Operations

Important deviations from sanctioned Plans of operation should be explained, and if there exist areas for which no Plans of Operations were drawn up the authority for the omission should be entered.

2 COMMUNICATIONS AND BUILDINGS

(a)-Roads and Bridges

The sub section includes tramways, slides and all other forms of export lines

he information should be subdivided under the heads of 'permaneat' and "temporary" works If the works were of some magnitude details of interest may be given regarding their nature

(b)-Building-

Here again the information given should differentiate between "permanent" and "temporary" works but no details are required ever for permanent buildings of importance. The cost of permanent and temporary roads and bridges and buildings should only be given in total-

(c)-Mucellaneous Works

A short pyragraph may be devoted to a hrief description of any miscellaneous works of interest Otherwise a brief statement of the cost meutred will suffice. Chap VI

3 PROTECTION OF PORESTS

(a)-General protection.

This cub section is of importance and the total number of forest offices which came under observation during the year should be compared with the average of these which occurred during the past three years. In the same way the officaces of the year under the heads (i) "Injury by fire," (ii) "Inauthorized Felling or Removal of Produce," (iii) "Unuthorized graunz." and (iv) "Other offences" should be compared, the rescons for any marked increase or decrease being given In another paragraph the number of cases compounded and brought into Court should be our dered together with the percentage of court into South and. The sub-cetton should close with remarks as to undetected cases and the nature of the purphiments inflicted by the magniture; in important forest case.

(b)-Protection from fire.

The sub-section should op-n with a statement of the method employed throughout the Circle and be followed by information as to the area under regular protection the percentage or sub-ess attained and its cost per square mile. The origin of fires should be considered under the following beads —

(i) I have originating in departmental fire conservancy operations

(ii) Those crossing outer fire traces

(iii) Those due to care'e spess or accident by outsiders, or to unknown can es

(1v) Those originating from intention or malice.

The extension of operations to bitherto unprotected forests should be noted on

(c)-Protection from cattle

The percentage of forests open to (1) Grazing, and (11) Browsing, to the whole area may be mentioned. The number of cattle impounded as compared with the average number of the last three years should be noted and reasons given for any marked change in these numbers. The injury done by cattle, the means taken to prevent such injury and their results should be recorded.

(d)-Protection against enjuries from natural couses

The sub section should be of interest. Any special danger threatening the fore t such as insects, para ites, chimber, snow, etc., should be mentioned, together with the measures taken to avert these dangers.

(a)-Natural reproduction.

This sub-section is of the greatest importance. It should be divided not reproduction from seed and coppies and so treated that the knowledge of the subject may be increased. To this end bald statements of the first that reproduction was good, indifferent or bad will not be acceptable unless the reasons are forthcoming. Steps taken or proposed to improve natural reproduction should be noted and some idea given of the area treated and of the operations carried out. This effects of protection in the past should be mentioned and the cost of the work of the year.

(b)-Artificial reproduction

This should be treated under the heads of (i) Regular Plantations in Tanngya Plantations and (iii) Cultural Operations The expenditure as well as the work on each should be considered separately Cultural operations are those undertaken with a view, not to assist natural reproduction (which is treated of in the previous entire the second of the proposition of the proposition of the proposition of the proposition of the second of the proposition of the second of

(c) Operations for the improvement of the growing stock

This sub-section should deal with operations carried ont in favour of the growing stock in natural forests and not with operations on growth induced by artificial reproduction or with those carried out to and natural reproduction. They will include all weedings, thinnings, cleanings gridlings and improvement fellings involving the removal of nucateable material. Such operations should be kept distinct from exploitations yielding marketable produce. The area operated ou and the cost should be entered.

(d) - Experements.

This sub-section should be devoted to a record of experiments made in the introduction of new species or in the utilization of indigenous growth A brief but interesting record should here be maintained which may be of great use in extending the scope of economic forestry

EXPLOITATION,

(a) - SYSTEM OF MANAGEMENT.

(1)-Major Forest Produce

The various systems of exploitation in force under the headings "Clear," "Regeneration," "Selection, "Improvement," "Coppies," and "Unregulated" fellings should be stated and any reasons for increase or diminution of area operated on explained.

(11)-Menor Forest Produce

The system of disposal of minor forest produce should be explained Grazing permitted for the purpose of producing revenue should be here treated. Efforts made with a view to increase the utilization of minor forest products may be touched on

(b)-Agency of Exploitation.

(1) - Departmental Agency.

The reasons for employing Departmental Agency should he given and the percentage of total outtine extracted by this method. The more important departmental works may be briefly described, including transport by land or water and depot arrangements. Major and minor produce should be kept separate for the purposes of this sub-section and the total value of disposals of the year should be entered

(tt)-Purchasers

The sub rection includes primit-holders and a subdivision as regards major and minor produce becomes a necessity. The working of the remit system and the check at revenue and other stations will here be touched on. The total value of the year's sales should be entered

(ses)-Rights and Privileges.

The sub-section should deal with the utilization by right and principes holders of the produce placed at their disposal, and explain any increase or decline in the demand, as well as the means taken to permit the paper thress of tights and puvileges without damage to the forests. The estimated value of removals should be stated

(10) -Free grants

Any large grants made during the year to individuals or communities may be mentioned and the reasons for the grant explained. The estimated total value of the grants should be given

5. Exploitation-(concluded).

(c) -Outturn and sources of Forest Produces.

This sub-section will summarize by volume, quantity or value all outling by whatever Agency extracted and should do so by classes of forest (Chapter I. 1) and Classes of produce (Major and Minor). Remarks should be added giving any interesting information that may be available regarding the outling of valuable timbers and of the more important minor products; also as to the number of cattle for which grazing has been provided.

This Chapter should end with a statement of the total expenditure incurred mader Management of State Forests,

CHAPTER III.

FINANCIAL RESULTS.

A comparison should be made of the moome and expenditure of the present and the past year and the nverage of the five preceding years. An analysis should then be made of the income as derived from major and mnor produce, of the expenditure (A) incurred on extension, constitution, improvement and exploitation of the forest property, and of that mourred (B) for administrative, executive and protective charges, giving percentages of the whole in each case and at the end the percentage of net income. The extent of outstandings and increase or defioit in stock-should be taken into consideration.

CHAPTER IV.

Administration.

The chapter should deal with establishments, services and conduct of officers, casualties and relations between Revenue and Forest officials. The inspection of offices should be hirely reported on. No detail need be given of the charges held by various officers during the year nor of the number of days occupied on tour.

CHAPTER V.

GENERAL.

The chapter should deal with any special matter of interest which does not fall under any of the previous heads.

In preparing the prescribed returns appended to annual Reports showing the progress of Forest Admin stration in provinces which contain more than one Conservators charge the figures with data is for each Circle should be brought together into a single table with a grand total for all the circle instead of separate series of statements for each Circle

272. Form No 51 (Area of Reserved, Protected, Unclass ed and Leased Forests ) - As this form is often referred to for the purpose of ascertaining the area of a particular forest. it may be prepared in detail every * fifth year During intervening years, only those individual forests should be entered separately in which alterations in area have taken place during the year For the rest, it will be sufficient to give totals for Divisions, Circles and Provioces Where such alterations are caused by the mere rectification of previous area figures, at will be convenient to note the fact in a footoote form prepared in this manner should not occupy more than two pages for the largest Circle

K

Form No 52 (Progress made in, and expenditure incurred on, Forest Settlements) -As regards areas already settled at the commencement of the year under report, it will suffice if they are shown in columns (1) and (3) in totals for Divisions only, the detailed information required by columns (2) to (15) heing given only for those tracts in which settlement operations had been in progress during the year

Form No 53 (Record of Demarcation and maintenance of Boundaries) -As indicated by the heading of column (1), the information given in this form should he confined to totals for each Division, with a grand total for the Circle The entries in column (5) should equal the total of those in columns (2,) (3) and (4), while the eighth column should he

APPENDICES TO THE FOREST DEPARTMENT CODE,

APPENDIX L

[Article 26 of Code, 6th edition ]

Regulations as to the appointment of Probationers for the Indian Forest Service, 1905.

- Appointments The Secretary of State for India in Council will, in the summer of 1905, make not less than une appointments of Probationers for the Indian Forest Service, provided that so many candidates are in all respects qualified under the conditions bereinsfier set forth, apon the results of a competitive examination to be held in London on the 29th August 1905, by the Civil Service Commissioners
- 2 Admission to Examination Applications for admission to the examination must be made on a printed form to be obtained from the Secretary, Judicial and Pahhe Department, India Office, Whitehall, London, S. W., and to be returned to him not later than Saturday, the 1st July 1905.

No applications received after that date will be considered

3 Age Limits - The age of candidates must not be less than 18, or more than 21, years on the 1st January 1905

4 Nationality, etc — Every candidate must be a natural-born British subject. He must be unmarried, and if he marries before reaching India, he will forfert his appointment.

of. Qualifying *raminations —A candidate must have passed the examination of the University of Carboid Lawan as Responsions or the Previous Examinations held (1) by these Universities (7 (2) by the Universities (7 London or Dublin or (3) by the Joint Board of Examines for the Scottleh Universities or the Scottleh Function (3) by the Joint Board of Examines for the Scottleh Universities or the Scottleh Function Department or (3) by the College Entrance I xamination Board of the United States of America and recognized by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge as equivalent to the examination in Responsions or to the Previous Examination, or must have passed an examination at some foreign University which, in the opinion of the Scottlan of State in Connol, is at least equivalent to any one of the examinations above mentioned

6 Subjects of Examination - The subjects of the competitive examination mentioned in paragraph 1 are as follows, it is probable that candidates for the Indian Forest Service in subsequent years will be required to have passed a qualifying examination in German —

App L. Regulations as to apptt of probationers for the Indian Forest Service

- (1) Mechanics and Physics
- (2) Chemistry
- (3) Zoology
- (4) Botany

Equal weight will be attached to each of the four subjects, and candidates must qualify in each

The Syllahus of the Lxamination forms Sub-Appendix I

- 7 Fee, etc —A fee of 21 is required from every candidate, and instructions as to the manner of payment of this fee, the time and place of the examination and any other necessary information, will be rent to candidates, on implication, by the Civil Service Commissioners.
- 8. Medical Learnization —Those candid ites who are provisionally successful in the competitive examination will be required, shortly after the result of the examination is declared, to undergo a strict examination by a Medical Board at the Ind 1 Office, at which particular stress will be laid on good vision and hearing

On passing this medical examination candidates will be deemed to be Probationers for the Indian Forest Service

- 9 Period of Probation The period of probation will extend over about three years. For the first two years the Probationers will be required to undergo a special course of study at Orford, and to become members of the University if not so already. During the third year of their probation they will receive practical instituction, visiting under suitable supervisi is such Continental forests as may be selected for the purpose. Excursions may also be made for purposes of study during the first two verse, both in term time and in the vacations.
  - 10 Charges —The Probationers will be required to defray all expenses for lodging, board, tutuon, and excursions which they may neur during the peri d of their probation at Oxford During the third year of practical in truction on the Continent, which will consist of three terms, each Probationer will be required to pay in advance a charge of 60°C a term, for which the Secretary of State for India will provide (1) head, lodging and washing, (2) travelling expenses, and (3) fees to local forest others, etc.
- 11 Course of Study -The prescribed course of study for the Piobationers comprises the following subjects -

I -Subjects auxiliary to I orestry

(1) I lementary Organic Chemistry and the Chemistry of soils (2) Geology.

App I

- (3) Forest Entomology
- (4) Forest Botany
- (5) Geometrical Drawing, Mathematics up to and including Plane Trigonometry and Surveying
- (6) German
- (7) Engineering (elementary)
- (8) Book Leeping in reference to Indian Forest Accounts

II - Forestry, Theoretical and Practical in all its Branches.

12 Conduct and Medical requirements—Every Probationer will be required to conduct himself during the period of probation in a manner satisfactory to the Secretary of State and to give evidence of satisfactory progress in his studies in such manner as may he required failing which, or in the event of serious misconduct, he will be liable to have his name removed from the list of the Probationers

A Probatoner may also, at the discretion of the Secretary of State be required from time to time to appear before the Vedicul Board, and, should the result he unsatisfactory, he will be hable to have his name removed from the list of Probationers

13 Diploma of Forestry, etc - During the period of probation the proficiency of the Prohationers will be tested by periodical examinations

The Probationers who satisfy the Examiners in all these examinations, and complete satisfactorily the practical course in Forestry on the Continent, will receive the Diploma of Forestry of the University of Oxford it is desirable that they should, if possible, also obtain a degree in the Homour School of Natural Sciences the University

14 Appointment and Seniority—Probationers who obtain the Diploma of Forety, and are of sound constitution and free from physical defects which would render them unsuitable for employment in the Indian Forest Service, will be appointed Assistant Conservators in the Indian Forest Department Their seniority will be determined by the results of the examinations held during their two years' readence as Probationers at Oxford and the manner in which they have completed the practical course on the Continent.

They will be allowed at the end of the period of probation to state their preference in respect to the Provinces to which they desire to be allotted, but the distribution will be mide to the several Provinces according to the needs of the public service at the descretion of the Secretary of State for India Officers are, however, at all times liable to be transfered from one Province to another at the pleasure of the Government of Ind a

15 Reding — Every Probationer, before proceeding to India, will be required to satisfy the Secretary of State, in such manner as may be determined, of his ability to ride. It is desirable that this evidence should be forthcoming before the Probationer proceeds to the Continent for his final period of study.

- 16 Attella of Agreement, etc.—Within a month of his nomination as Assistant Conservator, each nominee must sign articles of agreement describing the terms and conditions of his appointment, he must emiliar for India when required to do so by the Secretary of State and must engage his own passage. Failure to embart at the stated time will, in the absence of satisfactory explanation, lead to forfesture of appointment
- 17 Allowance —An allowance will be granted to each Probationer on signature of his agreement varing from 507 to 1007, according to the degree of profices ey and diligence shown by him during his practical course upon the Continent
- 18 Salary An Assistant Conservator of Forests will draw pay at the rate of R350 a month from the date of his reporting his arrival in
- 19 Promotion, Leave, Pension, and Provident Fund Promotion, leave, and pension will be governed by the Regulations laid down by the Government of Iuda, and made applicable to I orest officers, such regulations being subject to any modifications or alterators which may be made in them from time to much the Government of India and their interpretation in case of any doubt missing being left to that Government, A copy of the existing regulations can be seen on application at the Iudia Office

Certain information regarding appointments in the upper controlling staff of the Indian Forest Service will be found in Sub-Appendix II, a summary of information regarding lease is contained in Sub-Appendix III, regarding Pensions and Provident Fund in Sub-Appendix IV.

Sound

Direct determination of the velocity of sound in air and in water the effect of classe of temperature on the velocity of sound in air, mode of propagation of sound in air. Simple methods of determining the putch of a note. Characteristics of musical sounds

Light

Laws of reflection and iefraction Simple methods of determining tentive indices and the focal lengths of mirrors and lenses. The simplest form of the empond tenescope and of the astronomical telescope. Dispersion, the spectroscope, spectra of different k ads. Simple photometry. Elementary notions of the determination of the velocity of helpt.

Electricity and Magnetism

Properties of electrified hodies Methods of electrification Electric induction. The gold leaf electroscope Elementary quantitative notions of electrical quantity capacity potential and specific inductive capacity. Condensers Properties of magnets Methods of magnetization Magnetic induction. Simple methods of determining the declination and dip at a place and of comparing magnetic fields and moments. The construction of the batteries of Volta Daniell and Leclanche and their theory. The secondary battery. The physical and chemical action due to a current. Simple galvanometers, animeters, and voltameters. Measurement of current strength electromotive force and resistance. The production of currents by electro-magnetic induction. The broad principles of the induction coil and dynamo.

PRACTICAL EXAMINATION

Simple experiments illustrating the principles stated above

II - CHEMISTRY

The simpler chemical and physical propert es of common substances such as line, salt sugar, water, air

App I

Regulations as to apptt of probationers for the Indian Forest Service

The preparation (excluding details of technical processes) and properties of the following substances --

The metals, tin, lead, iron, copper, zinc, magnessum, calcium, potassium, sodium, their simpler and more important compounds, especially such as occur naturally, and such compounds and alloys as are used in the Arts.

Hydrogen, oxygen, water, ozone hydrogen peroxide.

Nitrogen, ammonia, ammonium salts, nitrous oxide, nitric oxide, nitrogen peroxide nitrates

LEAVE

1 The following is a simmary of the principal regulations relating to the leave admissible to officers appointed to the Indian Forest Service by the Servicary of State from the United Kingdom

Long Leave

2 Furlough is admissible to an aggregate amount of six years during the service. The amount "earned" is one fourth of an officer's active service and the amount "due" is that amount less any enjoyed

3 Furlou h without medical certificate can, if due, he generally taken after eight years' active service, and again after three years'

continuous service. It is limited to two years at a time

4 Furlough with medical certificate is limited to one year if an officer has not served three years continuously otherwise he may have leave up to two years, and it may be extended to a third year

The allowances admissible during furlough are -

- (1) During the first two years of furlough without medical certificate and during so much of furlough with medical certificate as may he "due"—half average salary subject to certain maximum and minimum limits
- (2) After the expiration of the period for which the foregoing allowances are admissible,—one quarter of average salary, subject to certain maximum and minimum limits

Short Leave

o Privilege Leave is a bolday which may be granted to the extent of one eleventh part of the time that an officer has been on duty without interruption, and it may be accumulated up to three mouths, earned by 33 months service. During privilege leave the officer retains a hieron his appointment, and receives the salary which he would have received if on duty. An interval of not less than six months must elapse between two periods of absence on privilege leave.

Privilege leave may be prefixed to furlough, special leave, or extraordinary leave without allowances. The whole period of leave thus taken in combination is known as combined leave. Combined leave may not be of less duration than six months, nor, except on medical certificate, may it be extended beyond two years

T Special Leave may be granted at any time for not more than six months, with intervals of six years' service, allowances calculated as during furlough, are given during the first six months only, whether taken in one or more instalments. This leave is included in the aggregate of six years' furlough admissible

Regulations as to apptt of probationers for the Indian Forest Service

- 8 Extraordinary I cave without allowances may be granted in case of necessity, and except in certain specified cases, only when no other kind of leave is by rule admissible. It may be granted in continuation of other leave.
- 9 Subsidiary Leave in India for a minimum of 10 days, usually with half average salary, is granted to an officer proceeding on or returning from leave out of India, or on retirement to enable him to reach the port of embarkation or to rejon his appointment it admissible only at the end and not at the hegmining of combined leave If the officer is entitled to privilege leave he can draw pay at privilege leave rates for as many days as he is entitled to such leave
- 10 Short Leave is also granted to enable officer to appear at examinations, etc.

General Rules

- 11 Leave of absence, whether on furlough or on privilege leave, can never be claumed as of right, and is given or refused at the discretion of Government
- 12 After five years' continuous absence from daty, an officer is considered to be out of the employment of Government
- 18 When leave allowances are paid at the Home Treasury, or in a Colony where the standard of currency is gold, runees are converted into sterling at the rate of exchange fixed for the time being for the adjustment of financial transactions between the Imperial and Indian Treasuries, nuless any other rate has been exceptionally authorised But for the present the rate of conversion is subject to a minimum of 1s 6d to the rupee

C .- General.

16. No student of European or Eurasian extraction, not already in the permanent employment of Government or of a Native State, shall be admitted into the Forest School if he is mairied, nor shall any such student, whether in the permanent employment of Government or of a Native State or not, marry whilst at the School or until he has joined a permanent appointment. A breach of this role will render the student liable to dismissal from the School, or to forfetture of any appointment in the Forest Service which may have been promised to him, or to which he may otherwise have a claim

17. Agreement and Security Bond — Officers of the Subordinate Service, deputed to the School by Local Governments under Rules IS (1) and 15, shall except a formal agreement—the surcties for the foliment of which should be men of position and means—to confinue in the Forest Service of the Local Government concerned for a period of not less than five years after passing oot of the Forest School, and on such rates of pay as may be in accordinate with the ensiting organization of the Department. A breach of this condition will render the defaulter and his stretches hable for the terfund of the entire cost of the stradent's education at the School. The agreement and security hone shall be in the appended forms, and must be executed before the student is admitted to the School. The agreement will be signed by the student, and if he is a minor, by his father or guardian also the lond by the student and two sureties. The amount of seconity to be taken will be—

5 Towards the close of the year a Conference was held at Dehra under the orders of the Government of Inda, passed overly the Officiating Secretary in this Department, to consider questions which had arisen in connection with the direction and management of the School. The most important of these matters were the establishment of a suitable Board of Control, the provision of an adequate steff of teachers and the question whether it was desirable to place the School under an officer of the Educational Department

The recommendations of the Conference were to the following effect -

(i) It at the Director of the School should continue to be a Forest Officer, who should, as at present, be the Conservator of the School Circle in the North-Western Provinces for the following reasons, viz.—(1) a special knowledge of the objects of the School, and of the practical duties to be enchusilly performed by the trained pupils, is essential, (2) a Forest Officer of standing and caphinity will in any case be required for special instruction in forestry, and it might be difficult to adjust the relations between him and a Director introduced from mother Department, (3) it is necessary that the Director of the School should also be the Conservator of the Circle in order to canalis the practical out-door instruction to be well carried out and to enlast the co-operation of the Forest schoolinates, (4) the Divisional Officers ander

the Conservator of the School Circle must be employed under the Director for teaching and their haring to serve two masters would give rise to difficulties, (a) the Conservator raight transfer these officers within his Circle in a way that would be inconvenient to the School.

(u) That while the School staff, as well as all questions of finance, should remain as hereforer subject to the orders of the Inspector General of Forests, a Board of Control should be constituted, of which the doties, inter alsa, would be as follows:—

(a) To arrange for the conduct of the examinations by certain of its members, who would thus form an independent examining body separate from the teaching staff.

(b) To decide on all matters connected with the curriculum, of studies at the School

(c) To advise regarding the prospectus of the School

(d) To decide the relative number of marks to be given for the different subjects, the forms of certificates, the measurem marks for pass and honour ceitificates, and similar matters

(in) That this Board slould be composed of the following mem

The Inspector-General of Porests, President

The Director of Public Instruction, North-Western Provinces and Ondh

The Director of the School

One Conservator from each Province

With, as Secretary, the Assistant Inspector-General of

(iv) That in view of the growing requirements of the School, and to admit of the extended course of instruct on now given being carried on successfully it was necessary that the staff of instructors should be correspondingly increased

6 The first and third of these recommendations have been acquireced in by the Government of the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, and accepted by the Government of India

Provision for the continuance of the joint appointment of Director and Conservator has been made in the scheme recently submitted to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the reorganization of the Forest Department, and Mi J. Sykes (Jamble, M A, one of the Conservators in the Madras Presidency, has been selected for the office

The proposal to necrease the teaching staff has also been submitted for the consideration of the Secretary of State, who has been asked to

Resolution of this Department, Circular No. 15 F., dated the 6th instant, communicating the remarks of the Government of India on the Progress Report of the Forest School at Debra for 1895 90

RESOLUTION—In the Resolution cited in the preamble, it was said had ministrations regarding the appointment of Color diversities to the Board of Control, which, in accordance with the recommendations of the Control extends that met at Dehra on the 22od March 1890, is to be established for assisting in the conduct of examinations and advising on matters connected with the administration of the Forest School at Dehra, in the North-Western Provinces.

His Excellency the Governor General in Council considers that the objects which the Conference had in view will be sufficiently met by the appointment of all Conservators as ex offices members of the Board: provided that, as a rule and except for special reasons approved by the Government of India, not more than three Conservators (selected as far as possible in rotation), and in no care more than one Conservator from each province, should be deputed to attend any one meeting of the Board, and, further, that, except for argent reasons, not more than one meeting should be called during the year, and that this should take place in March, when the annual examinations are hold. The attendance of each Conservator would, under these provisions, be usually required once in every five years.

3. His Excellency in Connoil now desires that Local Governments and Administrations will issue such instructions as may be necessary for the appointment of Conservators as exoffers members of the Board of Control, and will permit arrangements to be made, in direct communication with the Inspector-General of Forests, for the deputation of the requisite number of officers, whose services can be spared, to the annual meeting at Dehra.

Resourtion—By the Government of India Department of Prygym and Adeiculture

The Governments of Madras and Bombay having accepted the suggestion of the Government of India that in future the Forest Survey in those Presidences shall come under the supervision and professional control of the Surpentendent of Forest Surveys, who is an officer of the Survey of India, it has become necessity to make arrangements for the control and regulation of what will in future be the Forest Survey Branch of the Survey of India.

This Branch will no longer consist of one Imperial Survey party

This Branch will no longer consist of one Imperal Survey party and a few Forest burvey detachments but will constitute a considerable integral portion of the Survey of India and the Governor General in Council is pleased therefore to direct that the following arrangements shall be made for the conduct of all Forest Surveys executed in future in Iudia and Burma, in super-essaon of those primulgated in Resolutions No, 6 of the 6th March 1899 and No 7 of the 20th April 1901. The arrangements will come into force from the 1st April 1901.

I All Forest Survey operations in India and Eurma other than those undertaken by local Forest officials, will be carried out under the superintendence of an officer of the Survey of India who will be nominated by the Surveyor General and designated Superintendent, Forest Surveys He will be in herge of the Forest Survey Branch of the Survey of India and his position and powers will be in all respects.

similar to those of the Superintendent, Trigonometrical Surveys 2 All officers of the Survey of India both Imperial and Provincial at pre ent on deputation to the Forest Department for survey purposes, as well as No 20 Party in its entirety, will revert to the Survey of

3 The permanent native subordinate establishment of the old Forest Survey Branch of the Forest Department will be transferred to the

Survey of Iudia

4 All members of the new Forest Survey Branch will be subject to the rules and regulations laid down for the Survey of India

5 All accounts of the Forest Surrey Branch will be lept in accordance with the rules applicable to the Survey of India and be submitted through the Superintendent, Forest Surveys to the Comptroller India Treasures, for audit

Adjustment of Expenditure on Forest Surveys

App, VIL

Abstracts of the mouthly expense statements will be furnished by the Superintendent, Forest Surreys, to the Gonservators of Forests concerned, in order to enable them to adjust the expenditure of their Gircles accordingly.

6. The cost of all Forest Survays on scales of not less than four notice to the mile, executed by the Forest Survey Branch, will be distributed as follows:—

Provided that when special work is done at the instance of the Local Government, such as a boundary survey, the survey of a plantation on a particularly large scale, or of a river with exceptional defail, made with a view to the improvement of the waterway, the cost of it will be charged entirely to "Porests,"

7. The charges for maps will be debited as follows -

(a) The cost of the preparation and publication of the first editions of all forest maps, drawn in connection with corrent field surveys, will form part of the general charges for such surveys, and will be distributed in the same way as the cost of the actual field survey. Gopies of such maps will be resued free of charge on requisitions signed by Conectvators.

(b) The cost of second and sab equent editions will be borns by tha Presidency, Province, or Administration concerned.

(c) The cost of preparation and publication of special maps required for, and prepared at, the instance of the Inspector-General of Forests, will be debited against the Head Quarters budget

(d) The cost of all special maps prepared and published for Provincial Governments, with the sanction of the Inspector-General of Forests, will be charged to the Government or Administration concerned

8. The cost of all surveys executed by Local Forest officials will be debited entirely to "Forests"

9 All expenditure on surveys charged to "Forests," in Provinces to which the Provincial Service arrangements apply, will be divided between Imperial and Provincial, as heretofore, in the same way as all other Forest expenditure

10. The annual programme of Forest Surveys for the Bengal Presidency and for Barma will be drawn up by the Superintendent, Forest Surveys, in convoltation with Local Governments, and be submitted for approval to the Inspector General of Forests

The programmes for Bomhay and Madnas will be prepared similarly and be submitted for approval to the Governments of those Previdences. The combined programme will then be submitted by the Supernitendent, Forest Surveys, to the Surveyor General, who, after consultation with the Inspector General of Forests, will include it in the general programme of the Survey of Indea, which he submits annually to the Government of India for approval.

Adjustment of Expenditure on Forest Surveys

It is essential that the programme for the year should be settled not later than the 1st July in that year to allow of the prohable cost of the operations being intimated by the Superintendent, Forest Surveys, to the various Conservators concerned, with a view to suitable provision being made in the Revised Estimate of the Forest Department. When the annual programme of Forest Surveys is settled, the Superintendent of Forest Surveys will furnish to each Conservator concerned a forecast (as accurate as possible) of the aperations to be undertaken in the following year and their cost, to serve as a basis in the preparation of the Budget Estimate

11. The Superntendent, Forest Suries, will, as heretofore, keep up the map records of the Forest Department, and will prepare such index and working-plan maps, and such other special maps and truengs as may be sanctioned by the Inspector-General of Forests. He will all o be responsible for the safe suchody and distribution of all forest maps.

12 The following rules will govern the procedure to be adopted in the Estimates and Accounts -

All revenue and expenditure controlled by the Superintendent of Forest Surveys will in the first instance be shown in the India Accounts as Imperial 'Survey of India"
 The Aunual Estimates will, however, he prepared separately

- from those of the Survey of India, and the Supern todest of Forest Surveys will append to them a detailed statement showing the amounts debitable, respectively, against Survey of India, against Forest Imperial (India) in respect of the fixed proportion (70 per cent) of Head Quarters charges, and against Fore is Prouncial in respect of the proper chains of charges for Provinceal Survey operations and the preparation and publication of Forest maps. These estimates will be submitted by the Superni tendent of Yurest Surveys to the Government of India through the Surveyor General
- (3) The amounts included in the anoual estimates which app riam to the Survey of India and to the several Local Governments will be passed on to the Survey of India Estimate and to the estimates of the Governments concerned. The portion appertaning to the Survey of India Estimate will be included by the Surveyir General therein on receipt of the Resolution passed by the Department of Revenos and Agriculture upon the Forest Survey Estimates previously submitted.
- (4) In order to admit of the above procedure being properly carned out, it is essential that the separate Forest burvey Estimates should reach the Government of India not later than the let November annually
- (5) The actual adjustment of expenditure in the Accounts will be made by the Comptroller, India Treasuries For this purpose, the Superintendent of Forest Surveys will furnish with his monthly accounts to that officer a detailed distribution statement similar to that appended to his anunal estimates. A copy of this statement should be furnished also to the Surveyor General and the Inspector-General of Forest's

- (6) Whenever it is foreseen that the expenditure during the year will exceed or fall short of the sanctioned Budget Estimates, the Superintendent of Forest Surveys will advise the Conservator concerned so that he may apply for additional provision, if necessary, or apply the saving to other purposes
- 13 Minor Torest Surveys which are within the completence of the Prominial Forest Staff will be conducted by the local officers of the Circle concerned, but whenever such a work, not of a petry nature, is so undertaken, the advice of the Superinteedent, Forest Surveys regarding it should be first obtained through the Inspector-General of Foie is, or in the case of Bombay through the officer in charge of the Working Plans Brauch This is uncessary in order to prevent an undue expenditure of public money on over elaborate or completely inadequate schemes of survey

14 In Madras correspondence on Forest Suncy matters will except in regard to minor details, be carried on between the Forest Survey Department and the Board of Revenue as the head of the Forest

Extra-Assurant Conservator of Porests, Baluchisian,

With reference to paragraph 7 of Government of India, Department of Revenue and Agriculture, Resolution No. 3-219-5-F., dated the 11th February 1904, I have the honour to request that the following procedure may be observed no obtaining forest maps published by the Forest Survey:—

(1) The cost of first editions of maps form part of Survey charges (70 per cent., being debitable to Foreste), and such maps may be obtained by Conservators free of charge by direct induct on the Sunetin-tendent of Forest Surveys.

(ii) Second or subsequent editions of maps will be prepared by order of Local Governments and at these cost; but before asking for the preparation of a new edition of a man which will be a costly process, it should be considered whether it will not be sufficient to correct by hand such copies of the old map as are available. The distribution of such maps as well as the method of payment for the same will be carried out in accordance with such orders as the Local Government may see fit to issue to the Conservator.

(ii) Indents for special maps required by Conservators must be sanchimed by the Impretor-General of Forests. But as the cost of these maps is disbursed by Local Governments, such indents will not be transmitted to the Supernatement, Forest Surveys, without the previous sanction of the Local Government to the expenditure to be incurred. Estimates for the preparation of special maps should, therefore, first be obtained from the Superintendent, Forest Surveys, before the sanction of the Local Government and Impretor-General of Forests is asked for.

Inter departmental Adjustments

APPENDIX X. [ Article 194 (s) of Code, 6th adstson ]

Inter-departmental Adjustments.

Article 95 of the Civil Account Code, Sixth Edition.

The following rules are prescribed for regulating the conditions under which one department of the public service may charge another department for services rendered or articles supplied to 1t, and the procedure to be observed in recording such charges in the public accounts —

I —For the purposes of inter-departmental payments, the departments of Government are divided into service departments and commercial departments, according to the following principles -

Departments at Port Blazz

A—Public Service Departments—These are constituted for the discharge of those functions which e ther (a) are inseparable from, and form part of, the idea of government, or (b) are necessary to, and form part of the general conduct of business. Their cost is shown in the public accounts as the cost of the service as a whole, and without reference, to the details of the service rendered, e.g...

(c) Departments classed under Administration Isla, Police Roads and Buildings 1rr gation (i.e., maintenance of public tanks and water-ways) Military Works Army

(b) Survey Government Printing Stat onery

B—Quast Commercial Departments—These are maintained for the purpose of readering particular dervices on payment made for the services sendered or for the articles supplied. Their functions are not part of the ordinary idea of government or administration, e.g.—Foreste Poet Office Telegraph Ralways Irrigation (supply of water) Curchous Plantations.

II —A commercial department should charge any other department for services rendered or atticles supplied in the same way as it would charge a member of the public.

III —The charges permutted by Rule II are confined to charges for services or supplies which it is the object of the existence of the department to render or to furnish

The Forest Department may charge any other Days tment for vegetable or animal products extracted from a forest area and a so for animent products, unless such mineral products are extracted by the discrete agency of the Department concerned under its own superrison and without he intervention of or tractors or middlemen, for its own use and not for de spossit to the subble or other Departments.

IV —Service departments are not allowed to make charges against other departments for services which fall within the class of duties for which they are constituted (see Rule VI)

1 Convict labour is however usually charged fr such as that supplied to the Public Works I epartment (Governme tof India, Finan e and Commerce Depart ment Resolution No 517, dated 28th January 1872) and to the Forest and Marine

Inter departmental Adjustments

Expenditure on buildings by Public Works Department Officers in Bombay on account of the I i do European Telegraph Department should be debited in transfer to the latter Department.

the latter Department

V.—In exceptional cases, whereit has been considered advisable to show in one place the entire cost connected with a service of a commercial department, charges for services rendered by a service department to a commercial department have been allowed, e.g.,—

Supply of stationery and printed forms to railways or the Postal or

Telegraph Department

VI —A branch of a service department supplementary to its general daties is sometimes constituted upon commercial principles, and, sofar as legards the work of this branch, it is allowed to charge as a commercial department, so.,

Jail manufacture Survey map publishing Penting (Publishing Department) Steamers employed in earning freight, Mint (Miscellaneons services other than supee comage)

VII — A hranch of a department, whether service or commercial constituted for the subsidiary service of that department but employed for analogous service of another department, may charge that other department, e.g.,—

Workshops of a Department Agent for Government Consignments (services for Civil Departments) Mathematical Instrument Factory, Commissariat (employed on petty services), Dockyards, Arsenals

VIII(a).—A regularly organised store branch of a department (whether service or commercial) should charge any other department whose requirements it is made for the convenience of the public service to supply, e.g.,—

Medical stores to Civil Department

Exception — Multary stores supplied to Imperial Departments from arisinals. As the issue of these stores represents military or quasi-military operations somewhere, nothing is gained by giving credit for them under "Army".

(b)—In order to prevent undue exaggeration of the public revenue and expenditure, a store department, which is systematically employed in supplying the requirements of another department, should take the credits it receives by deduction from its expenditure on stores, and not by ordeit.

to receipts

IX —Petty and casual supplies made for the convenience of the public service to one department of stores or articles purchared for or helonging to another department and not borne upon a systematic store account, should, unless there the objection on the part of the supplying department, he furnished without payment.

X —A public department cannot be assessed to pay resenue to Government, but fees and duties leviable by law nust be 116

Inter departmental Adjustments

paid by public departments in the same way as by private individuals

XI —All payments of amounts due by one public department to another should be made by Look transfers, except when such transfers do not suit the methods of account or of business adopted by the receiving department.

Note - The cost of stationery and printed forms supplied to State Railways (including lines under survey or construction) is payable in each

(i) Fina ce Department a Pesol tion No. 4145, dated the 28th July 1888 (ii) Circul r No. 2 F. dated the 24th January 1889

Read also the following letter in connection with a question as to whether any charge should be made in respect of lankar extracted by a Government department from quarries situated in a State forest—

No 44 dated Lalose, the 21st January 1897
From-M W FENTON End CS Revenue Secretary to the Government of the Panjah, C-The Secretary to the Government of India, REVENUE AND

I am directed by the Lieutenant Governor to refer, for the orders of the Government of India, the question whether any charge should be made in respect of Lankar extracted by a Government department from quarries situated in a State forest, and to explain as follows—

2 In the particular case which has given rise to the present reference the kasker quarties are sit unted in unclassed State forest land in the charge of the Deputy Commissioner but the question is a general one which affects Covernment forests and wiste lands generally, whether under the lorest Department on managed by Giril Officers. Another oncumatance peculiar to the present case is that the claim to extract the konker free of royalty or other charge is made by the lirgation Department not in respect of its own qualitying operations, but on behalf of contractors through whom the kanker, is supplied. The Chief Engineer Irragation Department nigges that no charge should be made, pointing out that, if such a claim were missted on the Pathlic Works Department might apply for and obtain surrender, without payment of the land containing the quarry As regards contractors, he is unable to see any distinction between the case of these and of this own officials working the quarries by direct agency

B From the enclosed note by the Conservator of Forests dated 2nd instaht, it will be seen that the julings on this question issued by the Punjab Covernment in the rast have been by no means uniform, and the question being one of general principles, it should, in the Lieutenantcovernor's opinion, he referred to the Government of India Sir Dennis Fitzpatrick's view is that one Government department whether Imperial or Provincial, should not be charged by another for such things as $\lambda x \text{ in the sing sin question are things in which it deals as such, and, it may be added. His Honori would not hold that $\lambda x \text{ in the forest}$

Department dealt in its $\lambda x \text{ in the rests}$, in which the Porest
Department dealt in its $\lambda x \text{ in the first}$, just as a Deputy Commissioner might sell it em if they existed in acut I hand

4 As regards contractors I am to say that if a Government department made its bargain with the contractor on the understanding that it would procure for the contractor the same privilege in this respect that it would be entitled to claim it elf if working imans, the contractor should not be charged f r what he took for the supply of the department but otherwise the contractor would have to pay like any other person

RESOLUTION—The Resolution of the Finance Department, No 4145, dated the 28th July 1888, presembed the condition under which one department of the public service may charge another department for errices readered or articles supplied to it, and under this Resolution the Forcet Department is included in the category of quasi-commercial departments maintained for the purpo e of rendering particular services on payment made for services readered or for articles supplied These quair-commercial departments are to charge other departments of Government for revices rendered or articles supplied unto supplied these quair-commercial departments are to charge other departments of Government for revices rendered or articles supplied in the same way as they would charge a member of the public, provided, however that the services or supplies are such as it is the object of the existence of the department to reader or to furnish

Under the Forest Law of Iudia, 'forest produce' practically includes all natural products found in a forest, whether vegetable, animal or mineral

In 1883 * it was decided that the revenue realized from quarnes and

* Circular No 2F dated 25th
January 1889

25th meet forests and lands which are under the management of the Forest

Department, should be credited to "Forests," but where such forests and lands are not under the management of that department to ' Land Revenue (Missellaneous)"

2 The question whether, under these rulings the Forest Department is entitled tocharge royally to another department of Government upon muserals taken from the forest area has more than once come hefore the Government of Ind a, but, though it has insually been deeded, on these individual references, that the Forest Department was entitled to levy a royalty on all materials supplied to other departments, no definite general ruling on the subject has yet been laid down. The Government of India now consider it desirable to issue formal orders in the matter for general guidance; in order to recure uniformity of procedure and to prevent the possibility of misunderstanding They consider that a distinction may properly he drawn hetween vegetable products which strictly appertain to a forest as such, and animal products which depend for their existence either directly or indirectly upon the presence of the forest, on the one hand, and mineral products, the existence of which is independent of the fact that the land is a forest, on the other They consider, also, that it is undesirable to extend to contractors working for a Government department, any privileges which the department itself may enjoy when operating directly by its own establishment

3. They direct therefore that the Forest Department shall charge other Government departments for all vegetable or animal products extracted from a forest area, in the same manner in which it charges the public, and that it shall similarly charge contractors for all mineral products extracted by them, whether in behalf of a Government department or not If a Government department extracts mineral products for cale, they also will be charged for But the Forest Department will not charge other (lovernment departments for mineral products extracted from a forest area by the direct agency of the department concerned, under its own supervision and without the intervention of contractors or middlemen, for its own use, and not for disposal to the public or other departments. For such products the Forest Department will take no credit in the public (tressury) accounts of Government. But for statis tical purposes the value of these products should be shown in the returns furnished by the Forest Department, just as the value of timber and other forest produce removed by free grantees or night-holders is already shown

4. The ruling that certain forest products shall not he charged for, if directly extracted by other Government departments for their own use, in no way confers upon such departments any right of entry upon or of working in the areas under the charge of the Forest Department That department retains its full powers of control, and, subject to the orders of superior authority, will continue to fix and limit the localities where such extraction may take place, and to impose any conditions which it may consider necessary for the safety of its forests and the convenience of its own work

5 The above rulings will apply, mutates mutandes, to every class of forest or waste land at the disposal of Government, independently of the agency hy which such land may he administered

ORDER -Ordered, that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded, for information and guidance, to the Governments of Madras and Bombay, the Local Governments and Adminis trations noted in the margin, and the Inspector General of Forests, and for information to the Finance Department, the Public Works

The attention of the Government of India has been drawn to the tendency that exists to over-estimate the expenditure, and in some cases to under-estimate the receipts, in the bindget estimates of the Forest Department, as shown in the appended tables. This tendency, though general, is much more marked in some Provinces than in others, and appears, though in a less degree, in the revised estimates also. It seems to be partly due to a disposition on the part of Congervators and Local Governments to accept the figures of the Divisional Officers, without due consideration of the actuals of previous years for the Circle or Province as a whole.

The Government of India are fully aware that the conditions of working the forests are dependent on circumstances, such as varying demands and variable seasons, which are beyond control, but they consider that a careful review of the actuals over a number of years might lead to a closer approximation, especially in estimating expenditure, than is at present attained.

3 They are, however, disposed to think that the discrepancy nuder consideration is often due to a not unnatural degre on the part of the Forest Officer to provide for all the expenditure that may be required should the year be favourable, and at the same time not to commit himself to a higher estimate of receipts than will probably be realised should the year be unfavourable. This is clearly wrong from a financial point of view, as the estimates of both revenue and expenditure should be based upon one common hypothesis it is desirable to correct this tendency, and it appears, moreover, to the Government of India that in a quasicommercial organisation such as the Forest Department, greater facilities for the prompt provision of funds to meet charges directly productive of rsvenue would prohably develop the ntilization of timber and produce, and so materially increase the Forest receipts

4 The Governor General in Conneil is therefore pleased to empower Local Governments and Administrations to sanction grants for expenditure in the Forest Department, in addition to the hidgest provision, whenever it is anticipated that such grants are necessary to earn, and will probably carn, additional revenue of a more than equivalent amount Section 127 of the Forest Department Code will therefore be recast as

"(1) Whenever a proposed additional grant will be more than covered by a corresponding increase of revenue, to earn which the grant is required, the Local Government may sanction the grant and the corresponding addition to the estimates of revenue without previous reference to the Government of India, reporting the amounts and the circumstances to the Government of India

"(2) In all other circumstances the previous sanction of the Government of India is necessary It will not be given except under very special circumstances, and the necessity for expenditure in excess of the grant already sanctioned must be fully explained and justified in detail The mere inclusion in the revised estimate of particulars of anticipated additional expenditure is not sufficient for the purpose of this section.

"(3) Applications for grants under clause (2) must be accompanied by the re-appropriation statement prescribed in paragraph 2 of the resolution of the Government of India in the Department of Finance and Commerce, No 1360-A, dated 21st March If a re-appropriation within the sanctioned budget 1895

grant for forest expenditure is not feasible, a re-appropriation should, if possible, be proposed from the sanctioned grants under other major heads of expenditure controlled by the Local Government

5. The orders contained in sections 123 and 127 of the Forest Department Code, and in Circular No. 5 F. of 21st March last, will apply mutatis mutantis to applications for additional grants submitted by Conservators to Local Governments for sanction under the authority now conveyed

(Scitzstee), dated 20th November 1890, relative to the nunctual transmission to the Iudia Office of the several Administration and Departmental Reports

RESOUTION—In the Circular of 30th October 1819 Local Governments and Administrations were instructed to furnish the Government of India with 73 comes of each Annual Forest Administration Report Of these copies, 25 were utilised for Proceedings, and the remainder after being hound up with the Local Government's or Administration's Resolution and the Government of India's review of the Report, were distributed to various Governments of India's review of the Report were supplied to the Local Government of India's review of the Report were supplied to the Local Government of Administration conceined, for the purpose of being bound up with the Report and the Local Government's or Administration's Resolution threony, and then distributed The distribution of 132 of these bound copies was suggested by the Government or India, in addition to any copies which the Local Government or Administration might desire to send to newspapers or otherwise to distribute.

2 The Government of India have now decided that it will be sufficient, for their requirements, if only 20 copies of each Annual Forest Administration Report are in fintere, commencing with the Report for 1890 31, supplied to this Dupartment Three of these copies should accompany the letter from the Local Government or Administration submitting the Report with its Resolution thereon, and the remaining 17 copies should follow by book-post. The Government of India also desire that the tack hitherto undertaken by this Department of binding and distributing about 44 copies of each Annual Forest Administration

Report should beneforth be carried ont by Local Governments and Administrations, which will thus have in their hands the complete distribution of the Reports. Instead, however, of the distribution of 205 copies (73+132) indicated in the Circulars of 1879 and 1880, the Government of India would now suggest the distribution of 144 copies, as specified in the list appended to this Resolution. Local Governments and Administrations might also send copies to newspapers, and make such additional distribution, of a local or general character, as may seem suitable.

3 As regards copies for the India Office, two unbound copies of each Report should, in accordance with the instructions conveyed in the Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State, No 101 (Statistics), dated the 20th November last, be forwarded "by the very first post after report is prunted" addressed to the Secretary at the India Office in the Revenue and Sintuities Department, and five Jourd copies should as hitherto be supplied to the India Office, addressed to Her Majesty's Under-Secretary of State. The seven copies for the authorities named on the margin should be packed separately for each addressee and forwarded, in one enclosing wrapper, to the address of the Under-Secretary of State at the India Office, whence they will be transmitted to the addressees.

4 Each Local Government and Administration is now sequested to report how many copies of the Government of India's review of the Provincial Forest Administration Reports will be required in future for purposes of binding and distribution, in view of the reduction in distribution of over 60 copies suggested in Fangarpaph 2 of this Resolution.

5. As heretofore, the Annual Forest Administration Reports of the Andamans. Aimer, and the Forest Survey Branch will continue to be

READ-

Circular Besolution to 20 F dated 2nd September 1367, spec fying the conditions under which Forest officers on leave in Europe may study Forestry

Resolution—In wave of the importance of maintaining in the Forest Departments of India a continuous knowledge of the Forest systems of Europe, and for the purpose of encouraging the study by their officers of Continental Forestry, the Government of India have, with the consumence of Her Majestry's Secretary of Strite, deeded that the privileges set forth in the rules appended to this Re-obstion may be granted, with their previous approval in each case, to selected officers of the Forest

Departments when on furlough

2 The improvement of State forests in India has depended, and will for some time confinde to depend, is no small measure, on the adaptation to them of scientific principles borrowed from France and Germany. Under existing arrangements, candidates selected for the Indian Forest Service undergo a preliminary course of practical instruction, for a few weeks, in the forests of either France or Germany, but progress in Forestry is on the Continent so rapid that the knowledge which they acquire during their comparatively short tonrs, and at a time when their practical acquaintance with the subject is notly commencing, is found to be insufficient for the needs of Forest Administration in India It has therefore been determined to give facilities to officers who have proved, by the ment of their work in India, that they are capable of assimilating and turning to account useful knowledge to study Forestry on the Continent when absent from India on furlough Such officers. if carefully selected, would, it is confidently anticipated by the Government of India, be enabled, both by their special capacity and their practical experience of what is required in India, to bring back with them and introduce into Indian Forest Administration the most important improvements of the Continental systems which may be applicable to this country, more especially in connection with the preparation and control of Working Plans, in which exceptionally technical branch of Forestry the greatest advance has recently been made in the Forest Departments of the Continent

App. XIV.

Study of Forestry in Enrope by Officers on furlough

Rules* under which selected officers of the Forest Department in India may be authorised to study during furlough, at the public expense, forest operations on the Coultment of Europe

I —A Forest officer desirous of obtaining permission to study Forestry on the Continent, under these rales, must submit an application through the Conservator under whom he is erving, to the Local Covernment.

II —The Local Government will forward the application to the Inspector-General of Forests, with the remarks of the Conservator and its own recommendation in the case

III.—The Inspector-General of Forests will submit the application to the Government of India for orders

IV.—The Government of India will require to be satisfied that the officer applying is likely to profit by the additional experience which be will gain by Continental study, and that he possesses a sufficient I nowledge of the language of the country which it is proposed that he should visit

V —The application must reach the Government of India not less than four months before the date on which it is proposed to commence a Continental tour.

VI —If the application is sanctioned, the officer should place himself in communication with the Inspector General of Forests, under whose in structions the plan of study proposed will be arranged

VII —If as officer should be deputed direct from India to the Contrnental forests, he will receive his orders from the Covernment in India, but if he should proceed to England, it is advisable that he should report himself to the Revenue Secretary at the India Office, and it will rest with the Secretary of State to deede what localities are to be viviled

VIII—The total period to be spent on deputation will not, as a new period of the period to the continuous and the period to the Continuous and the rules more than once. At the end of the pend of deputation the officer rules more than once. At the end of the pend of deputation the officer elected will submit to the India Office a dury showing how his time has been spent, and a report which should also ruled early status as to the application of such operations that his hould also ruled early status as to the application of such operations to India. The Secretary of State will decide whether the dary and the report show that the time of the officer has been properly employed, and will determine accordingly for what period the daily allowance admissable muder Rule IX may reasonably be greated.

IX —Each officer will be paid, through the India Office, the cost of a first class return tacket or two single tackets in cases where a return tacket available for the period of deputation is not procurable hetween London and the place to which he may he initially deputed, or, if he should proceed to the forests without first coming to England, he will he had he railway fare from the port of debarkation to the place to which he may be initially deputed and his fare from the latter place to London, provided that the aggregate amount does not exceed the sum to which he would have hene cittled if he had proceeded from London He will also, subject to the precenting rule, he granted a daily allowance of ten

Circular No & F dated 13th February 1892 Resolution No 2 F, dated 18th January 1894

As it appears from applications which have been received under the rules for the encongagement of the study of Continental Forestry by Forest Officers, that the objects with and conditions under which facilities for this purpose are granted are not clearly understood, I am directed to explain the principles on which such applications are dealt with

2. A reference to the resolution of 13th February 1892, and the rules which accompanied it, will show that the object in view was, not the general improvement of a Forest Officer's knowledge of forestry, but that he should "bring back with him, and introduce into Indian forest administration the most important inprovements of the Continental systems which may be applicable to this country." The intention was that the concession in question should be extended only to specially selected officers, that a specific problem should be chosen for inquiry in each case and that a dehn to plan of study should be laid down by the Inspector-General of Forests before the officer left India, It is probably true that no Forest Officer of intelligence could visit any of the Continental centres of forestry without bringing away something that would be of use to him But it was not and is not, the intention of the Government of India that desultory touring of this nature should be performed at the public expense.

3. I am to request that Local Governments will give due weight to these considerations when applications under the rules are made to them

which will cover interest at 3½ per cent, on the capital cost of the buildings which belong to Government, plus the estimated average annual charges for maintenance and repars, with which should be included the amounts annually payable to the lessors of all buildings held on lesse.

Note - Managers of State Italianys are empowered to sanction deviations from the above conditions in cases where they consider it desirable

- (b) The rost charged for any building occupied by a Government official shall not exceed 10 per cest. on the salry and local ellowance of the officer in actual occupation, but in the case of an officer drawing presidency house-rent, the Government allowance shall be deducted from the amount assessed as test for the quarters occupied, prior to the application of the limit of 10 per cent on pay and illowance other than home allowance. For example, an Executive Engineer, 2nd grade, occupying public quarters at Calculate, the rest of which, as assessed under those rules, is $1.05, would be charged as rent, the amount of the lowance allowance of $1.5$, plus 10 per cent, on $1.00 (pay and presidency allowance), or $11.10 and.
- (c) For the purpose of this rule the capital cost of a building shall, unless specially reduced under clause (o), be taken as the cost of the building and its site, without addition of any percentages on account of Latablishment or Tools and Plant. If the house was constructed on land purchased by Clovernment, the value of the site will be the price paid for it by Government, if this can be ascentanced, if not, it will be the value at the time that these rules are first applied. If the house was built on land the property of Government, the actual outlay incurred by the State on such land should be included in the capital cost of the building, for the purpose of ussessing sent . but if no such outlay has been incurred, the value of the site should not be included in the capital cost of the building
  - (d) In the case of houses purchased by Government, the capital cost will be the price potently paid for it o property together with the smeant of the works cutlay memred by Government in altering, restoring or improving the building. When there is no record of the actual price paid by Government for any huilding, its present value should be estimated by the Executive Engineer of the division and approved by the Superintending Engineer, and thus estimate should be taken as the capital cost.

- (e) The average annual cost of maintenance and repairs will consist of two parts, special and ordinary charges
  - (i) Special charges will be those incurred in the renewal of floors or roofs, or on other special repairs or replacements occurring at long intervals. Provision for such charges should be made in the form of a percentage on the capital cost of each building, which will vary for different classes of buildings, and will, in the first instance, he fixed for each class by the Chief Engineer

NOTE --The cost of replacements or additions which really represent an increase in the value of a building, will, to the extent of such increase be chargeable to the capital cost of the building, the balance only bring chargeable to recent repairs

(ii) Ordinary charges will include the cost of ordinary annual repairs together with a proportional share of the expenditure that may be required quadrenmally or at other short interval The amount of these charges will be estimated by the Executive Engineer of the divi ion and approved by the Superintending Engineer In the case of houses held on lease, the ordinary charges will also include the amounts payable annually to the lessors, and in the case of bouses in respect of which Incorporate is liable to pay municipal taxes as es able on owners, the amount of such taxes Municipal taxes which by local rule or enstorn are levied on the accupant will be payable hy the occupant under para 1054, in addition to the rent payable to Government under these rules

In estimating the average annual charges for maintenance, no percentages will be added on account of Establishment or Tools and Plant.

Note —The estimated annual cost of mainter ages of buildings will be subject to reconsideration when necessary —See para 1926 or reduced to the amount prescribed by rule for the official concerned, as the case may be.

(b) Remissions of rents due for the occupation of Goveroment buildings may be sanctioned when the building is rendered uninhabitable by reason of extensive repairs being in progress, or from any other cause, provided that if the oconpier finds that the house has become uninbabitable from any cause, be shall at once report the matter to the Executive Engineer in charge of the building, who will immediately inspect it and forward a report on the subject to the Superintending Engineer, who will take such steps in the matter as he considers necessary, reporting his action to the Local Government, who will then decide whether remission of rent is to be allowed and, if so, whether partial or total. No remission of rent can be allowed for any period anterior to the date on which the occupier reported to the Executive Engineer that the house was uninhabitable, whether he left it before then or not

(c) At stations where, owing to excess of acc mmodation or to other special circumstances, rents must unavoidably be asserted with reference solely to prevaling rates, special assessments may be made by the Local Government, except in the case of huldings which have been constructed, purchased or leased as residences for officers holding particular appointments, and witch are occupied by the incumilents of such appointments. In the case of such buildings reduced assessments can be made only with the sanction of the Government of India, as broyded in real [6].

Rents for busidence on Class II

III —No officers of the Government are allowed residences free of rent, ucless under the sanction of some general regulation or order of Government —

(a) When a building in Class II is occupied by noy person who is not entitled to quarters rent-free or at a rent fixed otherwise than in accordance with rules I a d II, the rent to be paid abrill be fixed by the Local Government in general accordance with these rules, that is, on the basis that the full atriual rental of such buildings shall cover inteest at a per cent on the cap tall cost and the amount of the estimated average annual charges. [Article 109 (1) of Code, 6th Edition ]

Grants of timber and other forest-produce from State forests for the construction of works of public utility.

Circular No 8 F , dated Simla, the 21st May 1895

From -- Denzil Imperson, Esq. CS, Offg Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Revenue and Agencylrybe,
To-- Local Governments and Administrations

There have secently been seferred, for the orders of the Government of India, several proposals to grant tumber from State forests, either fies or at favourable sates, for the construction of works of public uthity. In disposing of such proposals, each case must necessarily be dealt with on its ments. But the Government of India think that it will be convenient to indicate the general principles in necordance with which these ments will be weighed, and with reference to which such proposals should be framed. I am directed, therefore, to communicate, for information and guidance, the following observations and orders.

2. When a grant of the nature under discussion is proposed as one of the terms of a concession, the fart question that arises is whether the upoposals of which the grant forms a potton are or see not unnecessarily liberal. In order to assist the Government of India in deeding this question, the approximate money value of the upoposal grant should invariably be stated. The Government of India are inclined to think that stud grants have, in some unstances, heen proposed authorituitineur consideration. Large timber requires a long period for its production, its cost to Government and its selling value are considerable, and it should not be readily surneadered on any large scale.

When the above question has been decoded, there remains the further question whether it is advisable that a portion of the concession should take the form of 1 gait by the Forest Department of what is worth money to them. And this question arises in those cases also in which the work is to be constructed by Government.

4 In the Resolution of the Government of India in the Department of Finance and Commerce, No. 4145,* Edich 2381, billy 1888, it is laid down that the Forest Department is to be considered as one of the guaricommercial Departments which are to be remunerated for services rendered and for produce supplied, and, in pursuance of this principle.

Reproduced from Article 95 of the Civil Account Code -vide Appendix X of t) e Forest Code, 6th Adstron

it has been held that it is ordinarily debarred from making free grants even to other Departments of Government When, therefore, the Forest Department will not benefit by the work that is to be constructed, no

grant is ordinarily admissible

5 But when, as is often the case, the work in question will be of real assistance in the development of forest revenue, by affording a new or improved exit for produce or means of placing it on the market, there appears to be nothing in the quasi commercial basis of the Department which need prevent its contributing to the construction of the work (such contribution being duly taken into account in settling the terms) in such manner as may be most convenient to both parties

6. When once the terms of a concession bave been sanctioned by Government and accepted by the concessions re, no grant can be sanctroned without a full equivalent, as that would be a modification of the terms of the contract against the interests of Government

7 In cases, however, where a special grant of timber free or at favourable rates is not admissible nuder the principles thus laid down. at does not always follow that Government should take advantage of the necessities of the case to exact for their timber growing on the snot the highest rate which it would cost the constructors of the work to hringwood from the nearest private source of supply. In the case of railways, tramways, and the like, which, even though they may be of no immediate nee to the Forest Department, develop the country and i enefit the public a reasonable liberality may fairly be exercised. In such cases the timber standing on the land which is made over to the constructors may always be sold to them at favourable rates, or, if its value is insignificant, be given to them iltogether And such additional timber asmay be required for purposes of construction should be sold to them at rates which represent a fair and reasonable mean between the value of the timber as it stood before the commencement of the work increased the local demand for it and the high price which they might be prepared to pay. rather than be compelled to bring their supply from a considerable distance

8 The existing rules which regulate the free grant of forest produce will be found in section* 107 of the Forest Code The Government of India have, however, decided to extend the discretion therein allowed to Local Governments, and the section will be recast in the form appended to this letter The grants dealt with in this section are special grants for specific purposes Those general forest concessions in favour of villagers, agriculturists, and the like, which I ave recently formed the subject of a Resolution in this Department, are beyond the scope of

Grants of timber and other forest-produce

Forest Code, Section 107, *4th Edition.

For the first paragraph substitute the following:--

- "Special grants of timber or other forest-produce, free or at favourable rates, for specific purposes, require the sanction of the Government of India if they exceed the following values:—
  - For the construction of large works of public utility, such as railways, tramways, and the like—R5,000.
  - (2) To village communities, public bodies, Departments of Government, or sections of the community in their collective capacity—RI,000.

(3) In other cases-R500.

"Within these limits, and subject to the principles laid down in Cucular No. 8 F., dated 21st May 1890 (Appendix XVI), such grants may be sauctioned by the Local Government; but all concessions of whatever value made under (i) for the construction of rulways or trumways must be reported at once to the Government of India. The Local Government may delegate to the Conservator the power of sanction (subject to the above limits) up to the value of R1,000 in any one case."

I am directed to invite attention to para 7 of Cincular No. 8 F.,

1 am directed to invite attention to pars 7 of Chicular No. 8 E., dated 21st May 1895, which deals with the supply of timber and other produce from State forests for works of public utility.

- App XVI
- 2 The Government of India recognize that much has heen done in recent years by the Forest Department to develop a market for its produce, and to endearour to meet the demand created by the extension of railways and by works of private enterprise. But cases have occurred in which railways have been unable to nithing timber which was available in the Government forests through or near which they passed, and in one particular instance it has been scertained that the sleepers were actually imported from a distant part of India and from Australia, though suitable timber existed in Government forests immediately adjacent to the railway. In view of these facts, it seems desirable to invite attention to the principles which should guide the Forest Department in such matters, in order to prevent the recurrence of similar cases.
- 3 The orders of 1895 refer to construction only, and relate only to the forests adjoining railways in course of construction. Their guiding principle is that, in the case of timber required for works which will develop the country and benefit the public, the price charged by the Forest Department should be a reasonable mean between the local value of the timber as it stood before the commencement of the work increased the local demand, and the price which the railway would have to par to obtain it elsewhere. The future value of the timber is to be expressly excluded from consideration. Interpreted with the reasonable hierality which was enjoined, the principle connected is a fair one. But the cases indicated in the preceding paragraph shew that its meaning has been imperfectly apprehended, one of the results being a loss of hierases to the Forest Department.
- 4 But apart from the special case of construction, and in the case of ordinary sales where it is permissible for Forest officers to take the Inture value of the timber into consideration, it seems desirable to point out that its value is to be estimated, not at what it has cost to produce but by the price it will command either at the time or in the immediate finture, since whatever an article may have cost, it is worth no more than it will fetch in the market. And it has further to he remembered that timber is perishable, so that sale at a low price is preferable to letting the wood perish in hopes of a future higher price, and that timber is reproducible, so that nothing high the deviating of prices in the immediate future would justify the holding over of unsold timber in preference to the acceptance of lower rates.
- o It may not always he possible for the Forest Department to compete in the open market with private sellers such, for instance, as the owners of private zamindari forests, who have no regard to the future of their forests and who look only to immediate profits. In such cases competition is often impossible as long as the private supply of timber holds out. Hot such cases are exceptional, and the general principle to be borne in mind is that it is as much the duty of the Forest officer to dispose of his produce as it is to produce it. It does not follow, because a certain price has been obtained for part of the stock, that the disposal of the remainder at a lower price is necessarily undesirable. If the entire supply which is available can be sold at the bigber price within a reasonably short interval, it is of course right to defer sale; but nules this is the case, sale at a lower price is desirable in order to secure the disposal of the stock, provided only that the price is remunerative. And in determining that question the cost of the normal forest establishment, which must in any case be maintained, should not be taken into account. If the cost of the establishment actually utilized for the extraction of the produce is covered, any further receipts for timber or other produce which would otherwise be unsale-able are to be counted as profits

Grants of timber and other forest produce

6. In conclusion it may be pointed out, in connection with the supply of timber to Badway Companies, which it is unnecessity and probably understable for the Forest Department to undertike department and perations when elsepers are obtainable from contractors who fell and convert them in the forest. But in such cases much may be done by the Forest Department to assist other Government Departments by uniquing these men into looch with the railway and other purchasers of produce with the view of supplying their demands. It should not be forgotten that the fact that a Department is managed on commercial lines does not relieve its officers from the duty of assisting other Government Departments, and other undertakings for the development of the country which are being conducted under the rainction of Government, are very may that is consistent with their duty to their own Department.

Rean-

Circular Resolution of the Department, No. 17-105 A, dated 15th July 1891 Chapters VIII and IX of Dr. Volcher's Report on the Improvement of Indian Agriculture

Review of Forest Administration in British Ind a for 1892 93 by the Inspector General of Forests

RESOLUTION —In Chapter VIII of his report on the improvement than a formulating. Dr. Volcker dwells at length open the importance of so directing the policy of the Forest Department that it shall serve agricultural interests more directly than at present, and in his serve agricultural interests more directly than at present, and in his ference of Forest Administration for 1892-93 the Inspector General of Forests discusses in some detail the principles which should underlie the management of Stite forest in British India While agreeing, generally, with the principles thus enunciated by the Inspector-General of Forests, the Government of India thank that it will be convenient to state here the general policy which they desire should be followed in this matter, more especially as they are of opinion that an imperfect apprehension of that policy has, in some recent instances been manifested.

2 The sole object with which State forests are administered is the public henefit. In some cases the public to be benefited are the whole body of tax payers, in others, the people of the tract within which the forest is situated, but in almost all cases the constitution and preservation of a forest involve, in greater or less degree, the regulation of rights and the restriction of purileges of user in the forest area which may have previously been empedy by the inhabitants of its immediate neighbourhood. This regulation and restriction are justified only when the advantage to be gateed by the public is great, and the rardinal principle to be observed is that the rights and privileges of individuals unit be limited, otherwise than for their own henefit, only in such degree as is absolutely necessary to secure that advantage

- 3 The forests of India, being State property, may be broadly clas ed under the following headings --
  - (a) Forests the preservation of which is essential on climatic or physical grounds

Porest Policy

(b) Forests which afford a supply of valuable timbers for commercial purposes,

(c) Minor forests

It is not intended that any attempt should be made to class existing state forests under one or other of these four beads. Some forests may occupy intermediate positions, and parts of one und the same forest may fall under different heads. The classification is useful only as affording a basis for the indication of the bread policy which should govern the treatment of each class, respectively, and inapplying the general policy, the fullest consideration must be given to local circumstances

4 lie first class of forests are generally situated on bill slopes, where the preservation of such vegetation as exists, or the encourage ment of further growth, is essential to the protection from the devastating action of hill torrents of the enlivated plane that he below them Here the interests to be protected are important beyond all companion with the interests which it may be necessary to restrict, and, so long as there is a reasonable hope of the restriction being effectual, the lesser interests must not be allowed to stand in the way.

5 The second class of State forests include the great tricts from which our supply of the more valuable timbers-teak, off), deodar and the like-is obtained They are for the most part (though not always) escentially forest tracts, and encumberd by very limited nights of user, and when this is the case, they should be managed mainly on commercial lines as valuable properties of, and sources of sevenue to, the State Even in these cases however, customs of user will for the most part have sprung up on the margins of the forest, this user is often essential to the prosperity of the people who have enjoyed it, and the fact that its extent is himited in comparison with the area under forest renders it the more easy to continue it in full. The needs of communities dwelling on the margins of forest tracts consist mainly in small timber for building, wood for fuel, leaves for manure and for fodder, thorns for fencing, grass and grazing for their cattle and edible forest products for their own consumption. Every reasonable facility should be afforded to the people concerned for the full and easy satisfiction of these needs, if not free (as may be possible where a system of regular cuttings has been established), then at low and not at competitive rate. It should be distinctly understood that considerations of forest income are to be subordunated to that satisfaction

There is reason to beheve that the arta which is suitable to the growth of valuable tumber has been over estimated, and that some of the tracts which have been reserved for this purpose might have been managed with greater profit both to the public and to the State, if the lefters of the Forest Department had been directed to supplying the large demand of the agricultural and general population for small timber, rather than the limited demand of merchanis for large timber. Even in tracts of which the conditions are suited to the growth of large timher it should be carefully considered in each case whether it would not be better, both in the interests of the people and of the revenue, to work them with the object of supplying the requirements of the general, and in latticular of the agricultural, population.

6 It should also be remembered that, subject to certain conditions to be referred to precently, the claims of cultivation are stronger than the claims of forest preservation. The pressure of the population upon the soil is one of the greatest difficulties that India has to face, and that application of the soil must generally be preferred which will sup port the largest numbers in proportion to the area Accordingly, wherever an effective demand for culturable land exists and can only be supplied from forest areas, the land should ordinarily he relinquished without hesitation, and if this principle applies to the valuable class of forests under consideration, it applies a fortiors to the less valuable classes which are presently to be discussed. When cultivation has been established, it will generally he advisable to disforest the newly-settled But it should be distinctly understood that there is nothing in the Forest Act, or in any rules or orders now in force, which limits the discretion of Local Governments, without previous reference to the Government of India (though, of course, always subject to the control of that Government) in diverting forest land to agricultural purposes even though that land may have been declared reserved forest under the Act

7 Mention has been made of certain conditions to which the application of the principle laid down in the preceding paragraph should be subject. They have for their object the utilization of the forest area to the greatest good of the community In the first place, the honeycombing of a valuable forest by patches of cultivation should not be allowed, as the only object it can serve is to substitute somewhat better land n patches for sufficiently good land in large blocks, while it renders the proper preservation of the remaining forest area almost impossible. The evil here is greater than the good In the second place the cultivation must be permanent Where the physical conditions are such that the removal of the protection afforded by forest growth must result, after a longer or shorter period, in the struktation or destruction of the soil, the case falls under the principle discussed in paragraph 4 of this Resolution So, again, a system of shifting cultivation, which denudes a large area of forest growth in order to place a small area under crops, costs more to the community than it is worth, and can only be permitted, under due regulation, where forest tribes depend on it for their sus-In the third place, the cultivation in question must not be merely nominal, and an excuse for the creation of pastoral or semipastoral villages, which do more barm to the forest than the good they reap from it. And, in the fourth place, cultivation must not be allowed so to extend as to encreach upon the minimum area of forest which is needed in order to supply the general forest needs of the country, or the reasonable forest requirements, present and prospective, of the neighbourhead in which it is situated. In many tracts cultivation is practically impossible without the assistance of forests, and it must not be allowed to destroy that upon which its existence depends

8 It has been stated above that the forests under consideration are generally but not always, free from customs of user. When, as sometimes happens they are so intermingled with permanent villages and cultivation that customary rights and privileges militate against their management as revenue-paying properties, the principles laid down at the enl of paragraph 5 of this Resolution should be cobserved, and considerations of income should be made secondary to the full suitafation of local needs. Such restrictions as may be necessary for the preservation of the forest, or for the better enjoyment of its henefits should be impressed, that no restriction about the plane of the forest.

demands, merely in order to increase the State revenues

9 The third class of forests include those tracts which though true forests produce only the interior sorts of timber or the smaller growthe of the better vorts. In some cases the supply of fuel for manufactures railways, and like purposes, is of such importance that these forests fall more properly under the second class, and must be mainly managed as commercial undertakings But the forests now to be considered are those which are useful chiefly as supplying fuel and fodder or grazing for local consumption and these must be managed mainly in the interests of the population of the tract which supplies its forest requirements from this source. The first object to be aimed at is to preserve the wood and grass from destruction, for user must not be exercised so as to anmin late its subject, and the people must be protected against their own improvidence The second object should be to supply the produce of the forests to the greatest advantage and convenience of the people. To these two objects all considerations of revenue should ordinarily be sabordinated

10 It must not be supposed from the preceding remarks that it is the intention of the Government of India to forego all revenue from the large areas that are valuable chiefly for the fuel and fodder which they yield Cases must be distinguished. Where the areas in question afford the only grazing and the only supply of fuel to villages witch lie around or within them, il e necessities of the inhabitants of these villages must be treated as paramount and they should be satisfied at the most readente rates and with as little desect, affinal interference as rapsible But where the villages of the tract have already ample pasture grounds attached to their cultivation and owned and managed by themselves, and where the Crown lands merely emplement these pretures, and afford grazu g to a nomed pastrol population, or to the herds that shift from one portion of the country in unother with the changes of the season Government may justly expect to reap a fair income from its property Even in such cases, however, the convenience and advantage of the graziers should be studiously considered, and the inhibitants of the locality, or those who habitually graze over it, should have a preferential claim at rates materially lower than might be obtained in the open market It will often be advantageous to fix the grazing demand noon a village or a nomal community for a year or a term of years. The system, his every other, has difficultes that are jeculiar to it, but reduces the interference of petty officials to the lowest nount, and minimizes their opportunities for extortion and oppression. Where grazing fees are levied per capita, free passes are often given to a certain number of cattle. In such cases the cattle wouch are to graza free should include, not only the oxea which are actually employed on the plough, but also a reasonable number of milet cattle and olive. A cow or a buffalo is as much a necessity to a cultivator using the word necessity in a reasonably wide sense, as is a plough bullock, and in many parts the oxea are bred in the village

11 In the portions of his report which are referred to in the preamhle to this Resolution Dr Volcker strongly recommends the formation of fuel and fodder preserves, and the Government of Judia have repeated. ly urged the same policy upon Local Governments. The question whether any particular area can be made to support a greater number of cattle by preserving the grass and cutting it for fodder, or by per mitting grazing upon it, is one that must be decided by the local circamstances of each case But wien it has been decided, the issues are hy no means exhausted. It has been stated in para 9 above that one main object towards which the management of these minor forests should be directed is, the supply of fuel and fodder "to the greatest advantage and convenience of the people" In doing so, due regard must he had to their habits and wishes It may be that strict preservation and periodical closures, or the total prohibition of grazing, will result in the largest yield both of fuel and of fodder in the form of hav But that is of small aviil if the people will not utilize the increased supply in the form in which it is offered them. The customs of generations alter slowly in India, and though much may and should be done to lead the people to their own profit, yet it must be done gently and gradually— always rememb ring that their contentment is no less important an object than is their material advantage. It must be remembered moreover, that the object of excluding grazing from the preserves in question is the advantage of the neighbourhood, and that the realization of a larger income than grazing would weld by preventing the produce, or ly to sell it to the highest bidder for consumption in large towns at a distance from the preserve, is not always in accordance with the policy which the Government of India have inculcated Here again circumstances must decide It may be that the local supply of fuel or fodder, independently of the reserved area, is sufficient in ordinary years for the needs of the neighbourhood In such a case the produce may legitimately be disposed of in such years to the greatest advantage, reserving it for local consumption only when the external supply runs short Finally, the remarks regarding agency to para 12, and the more general considerations that are discussed below in para 13 of this Resolution, apply in full force to areas thus reserved for the supply of fuel and fodder

Forest Policy

12. The fourth class of farcests referred to are pastures and grazin, grounds proper, which are usually forests only in name. It is often convenient, indeed, to declare them forests under the Act, in order to obtain a statutory settlement of the rights which the State on the one hand, and private individuals or communities on the other, porcess over them. But it hy no means follows as a matter of course that these lands should be subjected to any strict system of conservation, or that they should be placed under the management of the Forest Department. The question of sgency is purely one of economy and expediency, and the Government of Indi believe that in some cases where these lands are managed by the Forest Department, the expenditure on establishment exceeds the revenue that is, or at any rate the revenue that ought to be, realized from them.

The following remarks apply, not only to forest lauds noder the Act, whether adm unstered by the Forest Department or not, but also to dil Crown waste, even though not declared to be forest. Here the interests of the local community reach their maximum, while those of the general public are of the slightest nature. It follows that the principles which have heen already laid down for the management of muor forest apply, if possible, with even greater force to the management of grazing areas, pure and simple

13 The difficulties which arise in connection with these prease are apt to present themselves in their most aggravated form where the tenure of land is ryotwari In zeminders tracts the Crown lands generally assume the second of the two forms indicated in para 10 of this Resolution But where the cettlement is ryotwars, every survey unmber or field that is unoccupied or unassigned is in the possession and at the disposal of Government, and trespase upon it is premd facie forbidden In some cultivated tracts these unoccupied and waste lands are the only source available from which the grazing requirements of the resident population canbe met The Government of India are clearly of opinion that the intermixture of plots of Government land which are used for grazing only, but upon which trespass is forbidden, with the cultivation of occupancy or proprietary holders, is apt to lead to extreme abuses and especially so when these plots are under the management of the Forest Department The inferior subordinates of the Forest Department are perhaps as reliable as can be expected on the pay which we can afford to give, but their morality is no higher than that of the uneducated classes from which they are drawn, while the enormous areas over which they are scattered and the small number of the controlling staff render effective supervision most difficult. It is not right, in order to protect the grass or the grazing dies on plots of waste scattered over the face of a cultivated district, to put it into the power of an underling to pound or threaten to pound cattle on the plea that they have overtepped the boundary between their owner's field and the next Still les right is it to permit the exercise of the power of compounding offences allowed by section 67 of the Forest Act to depend upon the mere report of a subordinate servant, or to expose him to the temptations which such a power holds out Where the interests involved are sufficiently important, it may perhaps be necessary to accept the danger of extortion while minimizing as far as possible the opportunities for it But in the case under consideration the interests involved are trifling.

while the opportunities are unlimited

14 It is to be distinctly understood that the Government of India do not desire that grazing should be looked upon primarily as a source of But it by no means follows that all revenues from scattered Government lands should be rehugnished It is, indeed, it advisable that this should be done, as to do so would give the raiyats an interest in opposing allotment and making things unpleasant for new occupants But the objections to direct management which have just been pointed out are reduced to a minimum or altogether avoided, when the manage ment is placed in the hands of the resident cultivators or of represent atives from among them It will generally be possible to leave or otherwiss manage the unoccupied lands of a village through the agency of the community not, indeed, at the highest price which they are ready to pay to escape such evils as have just been alluded to, but at a moderate estimate of their value to them fixed 10 view of the fact that berds and flocks which cannot exist without grazing, are often a neces sary condition of the successful conduct of that cultivation upon which the Government land revenue is paid. In no case should fields that have heen relinquished be let to outsiders at a reduced assessment for grazing purposes for theu we might have sp chlators taking up such fields, mainly in order to make what they can out of trespassing cattle

15 One more point of principle remains to be noticed. The procedure under Chapter IV of the Judian Forest Act, whereby forests are declared to he protected, has been in certain cases regarded by the Government of India as a provisional and intermediate procedure designed to afford time for consideration and decision with the object of pltimately con stituting so much of the area as it is intended to retain, a reserved forest under Chapter II, and of relinquishing the remainder altogether. The Act provides two distinct procedures By the more strict one under Chapter II existing rights may be either settled transferred or commu ted and this procedure will ordinarily be applied to forests of the first and second classes indicated in para 3 of this Resolution By the second procedure under Chapter IV rights are recorded and regulated and this procedure will often be properly followed where the rights to which the area is subject are extensive and the forest is to be managed mainly in the interests of the local community. It will ordinarily he applied to forests of the third and fourth clas e. This second procedure may indeed he provisional and introductory to reservation under Chan ter Il, but there is in the Forest Act nothing repugnant to givin, it a larger and even a permanent operation As regards Government the chief difference between the two procedures is that new rights may spring up in a protected but not in a reserved forest, and that the recordof nights framed under Chapter II is conclusive while that framed under Chapter IV only carries a presumption of truth It is believed that this presumption offers ample security where the object of regulating the rights

is to provide for their more beneficial exercise rather than to override them m the public interest. As regards the people the chief difference is that speaking breadly in a reserved forest everything is an offence that is not permitted, while in a projected forest nothing is an offence that is not probibited. In theory it is possible so to frame the permission and the prombits n as to make the results identical in the two cases, but in practice it is almost impossible to do so. If it were not so the distinction drawn by the Legislature would be unrecessary and meaningless. It is only where the public interests involved are of sufficient importance to justify the stricter procedure and the more compreh naive definition of forest offences that the latter should be adopted

Tue Governor General in Council des res, therefore, that with regard both to fuel and fooder preserves and to graining areas pure and simple, and appenally to such of them as he in the midst of on fivated tracts it may be considered in each cas whether it is necessary to class them, or, if already so classed, to retain them as forest areas, and if this question is decaded in the americative, whether it would not be better to constitute

th m protected rather than reserved forester

16 Such are the general principles which the Government of India desire should be observed in the administration of all State foresto m British India. They are fully aware that the desailed application of these primery es must depend up n an infinite variety of circumstances which will have to be doly weighed in each case by the local authorities, to whose discretion the decision must be left. One of the dangers which it is most difficult to guard against is the fraudulent abuse of concernors for commercial perposes and only local confiderations can moreste how this can best bom t. The Government of India recognize the fac that the eas er treatment in the matter of forest produce which His Excelence in Council desires al ould be extended to the agricultural classes may, especially in the case of true fore t areas necessitate more careful supervision in order that the concession may be confined within its legitimate limits. But on the other hand they think that in some Provinces it will render po-able a considerable reduction of existing establishmen and they come that this matter may be carefully con_dered with reference to what has how said above in paragraph 12 They know also in some Provinces f eset policy is already framed on the lm s which they wish to see followed, in all But the Governor General in Coursel beheres that Lecal Governments and Administrations will be glad to receive the asturance now given them that the Supreme Government will corotally supp it them in recognizing and providing for I cal requirements to the utmost point that is consistent with Importal interests. Where working plans or plans of operation are framed for forests the provisions necessary for this purpose should be embodied in them. The exercise of the rights that have been recorded at cettlement will necessarily be provided for in these plans. Where further conce-sions are made by way of privilege and grace, it will be wels to grant them for some such limites period as ten years, so that they may, if necessary be revised from time to time as the circumstances on which they were moulded change

Article 19 (1s) of Code, 6th Edition.

Transfer of appointments from the Imperial to the Provincial Forest Service.

Circular No. 17 F , dated 4th November 1896.

RESOLUTION .- In paragraph 5 of Circular Resolution No. 18 F., dated 29th July 1891, it was remarked as follows :-

"There will at present be 193 officers on the Upper Controlling Staff (exclusive of officers on foreign astroce), and 83 officers on the Lower Controlling Staff. The Upper Controlling Staff, which is the districted of the staff of the Staf At the outset the Upper Controlling Staff will comprise only officers of the Imperial Branch, but, as opportunities occur, they will be replaced by officers of the Provincial Branch up to a limit of 40 appointments.

Since the above was written, 17 appointments have been added to the Upper Controlling Staff in Burma, of which are ultimately to he transferred to the Provincial Service. Thus the 193 appointments have become 210, and the 40 appointments 43. Of 3 latter, the appointments mentioned in the margin have Central Provinces - Berar already been transferred from the Imperial to the Provincial Service. But it will be convement to deal with the transfer as a whole, to start from the basis of the Imperial and Provincial Services as constituted before any transfer had taken place to detail the 43 appointments which are to be transferred and their distribution, and to lay down the manner in which . their transfer will be gradually effected. 2. The appended tables show the Forest services of each province or group of provinces as constituted before the transfer is begun (Table B) and after the transfer is complete (Table C).

It will be noticed that the total strength will eventually be reduced in the Punjab, and increased in Madras, by the transfer of two Assistant Conservatorships from the former to the latter province. This change is intended to reduce in some degree the inequalities which will still exist in the proportions between Deputy and Assistant Conservators in the Impenal Service of the several provinces as finally constituted. Working with such small numbers, it is impossible at present wholly to remove such mequalities. The Government of India, however, fully recognise their existence, but their effect will not become apparent for some considerable time; and meanwhile, advantage will be taken of any increase or re-arrangement of the Forest Staff that may become necessary, in order to reduc or remove them. The Governor General in Council will be glad if Local Governments will bear this point in mind

App XIX.

Each Provincial Service will, when the transfer is complete, be independent of the Imperial Service in the province concerned, and will (except in one point, presently to be noticed, connected with the Bengal, Assan and North-Western Provinces services) be self-sufficing and self-contained. For every new post added to the Provincial Service, an appointment of corresponding claes and grade in the Imperial Service must simultaneously be oblocked, viz., an Assistant Conservatorship, 2nd grade; in Deputy Conservatorship, 4th grade, for an Extra-Deputy Conservatorship, 4th grade, for an Extra-Deputy Conservatorship, 4th grade, for an Extra-Deputy Conservatorship, 4th grade, and so on.

3 The appended Table D shows the grading and distribution of the appointments that are to be transferred. The transfer will ordinarily be made as follows—The annual recruitment from England has been cut down so as to suit the reduced Imperial cadre, and so adjusted that each year the number of recruits who will arrive from England will be fewer by two than the number which would be required to maintain the cadre at its present strength. There will thus be, for the present, two appointments in the 2nd grade of Assistant Conservators annually available for transfer, and they will be transferred accordingly by the Government of India to one or other of the Provincel lists as Extra-

Assistant Conservatorships of the 2nd grade

4 The initial appointments thus transferred to each Provincial Service in the second grade of Extra-Assistant Conservators may be regarded as pilot appointments, and their rise on the Imperial list will govero the subsequent transfer of appointments to the higher grades of that service Each such appointment will continue for the present to he shown in the Imperial list in its proper place and with its proper number, the words " transferred to the Provincial Service " being entered in italics, and not the name of the officer holding the transferred appointment, which will be shown on the separate Provincial list to which he belongs. The pilot appointments will rise on the Imperial list in ordinary course, and whenever any pilot appointment reaches in the course of permanently substantive promotion * a grade from which a transfer is to be made, an appointment in that grade will he reduced to the Imperial list, and a corresponding appointment added to the Provincial list Thus each pilot appointments will transfer one appointment from the Imporial to the Provincial Service from each grade which it enters in the course of its rise on the Imperial list, so that as many pilot appointments (and no more) must be allowed to

• When a p lot appointment on upses such a position on the Imperial list that, if the appointment were still borno on that list, its incumbent would it is ordusary course be entitled to officiating sub protein or provisionally substantive promotion, such promotion will be given to the officer who steads exist be ow the pile's appointment on the Imperial list. In the last two cases the pilot appointment and that officer's has been given, and when the promotion which temporary promotion that been given, and when the promotion here are presented in the pilot supposed to the pilot appointment alone being retained in the higher grade, from which a transfer will those be made

rise to each grade as there are transfers to be made from that grade . As soon, therefore, as all the transfers which are to be regulated by the rise of any particular pilot appointment are complete, that pilot appointment, being no longer required, will be struck off the Imperial list. When the appointments to be transferred in any province, asshown in Table D, do not include any in the lowest grades, the transfers made as above in those grades will be temporary only, for the purposes of the process of transfer, and as that process progresses, these temporary appointments will be retransferred to the Imperial list, so that the total number of transfers to be made to the Provincial list shall never be exceeded. Wherever, as noted above in para 1, an appointment has already been transferred direct from a higher grade than the lowest, the corresponding Imperial appointment will be retained for the present in the Imperial list as a pilot appointment. As soon. as the transfer of appointments to the Provincial cadre is complete in any province, the Provincial Service of that province will be relf-contrined and independent, and will cease to have any connection with the Imperial list. Table A shows in detail how the process of transfer would be worked in an imaginary province.

5 It must be clearly understood that the rise of the pilot appointments on the Imperial list regulates the transfer of appointments only and has nothing whatever to do with the promotion of individual officers on the Provincial list Each new appintment, as it is added to that list, becomes merged in it, and the fact that it has been added by transfer in no way distinguishes it from the other appointments already on the list. It is in each age for the Local Givernment to decide, with reference to the considerations set forth in the next following paragraph, which of their Provincial officers is to be promoted to the new appointment, and the fact that the appointment which an officer holds happens to have been added to the list by transfer, gives bim no sort of claim to the next higher appointment which may be transferred, as the pilot appointment rises So, again, the fact that a pilot appointment reaches a point on the Imperial list at which its incumbent, if it was still torne on that list, would receive officiating or sub pro tem, or provisional substantive promotion, creates no claim to such promotion on the Provincial list. The promotion on that list is entirely independent of the Imperial list, no appointment can be held by any Provincial offices till it has been actually transferred to the Provincial list, and as already explained, the transfers will be regulated by the permanently substantive position of the pilot appointments *

* When a priot approximent occupies such a position on the Imperial 1st that, if the appointment were still borne on that list its moumben, would in ordinary course be entitled to officiating, sub profess or provisionally substantive promotion, such promo-tion will be given to the officer who stands next below the pilot appointment on the Imperial 1 st In the last two esses the pulot appointment and that off cer s name will be shown bracketed tog-ther in the grade to which temporary promotion has been given, and when the promotion becomes permanently substantive, the officer will revert to the grade below the pilot appointment alone being retained in the ligher grade, from which a transfer will then be made

Transfer of appts from the Imperial to the Provincial Forest Service

App XIX.

6 Promotions from Extra-Assistant Conservator to Extra Deputy Conservator will mainly depend on the qualifications of officers and the practical efficiency shown he them in the discharge of their duties , and though the position attained by seniority on the list of Extra-Assistant Conservators will be taken into consideration, such promotion cannot be given or claimed on grounds of semiority slove, and Local Governments may promote a mentorious officer of a lower grade to an Extra Deputy Conservatorship which may have become vacant posotments to and promotion in the grades of Extra Deputy Conservators will also in all cases be dependent on fitness, and in any case when a competent Provincial officer is not forthcoming for a vacancy in the e grades, an Imperial officer may be appointed to hold it temporarily on the pay of the corresponding Imperial grade until a fit officer is available on the Provincial list But subject to this condition all vacancies on the Provincial list will be filled up from that list, the promotion in it helog entirely independent of the Imperial list So long as an appointment on the Provincial list is temporarily held. under the circumstances explained above, by an Imperial officer, a temporary transfer to the Provincial list may be made in any lower grade for which there is a fit Provincial officer available. It will be noticed that a part of the improved prospects which the reorganisation was to afford to the Provincial Service has already been enjoyed by that service for some years past the pay of certain Extra Assistant Conservatorships having been raised to $800 and $350 per measem The Extra Assistant Conservatorships which will now be transferred in the first instance, will be of the R$00 grade as already explained, but the existing Extra Assistant Conservatorships in the H350 grade will of course rank as senior to them

7 With reference to the "exception mentioned in paragraph 2 of this Resolution, it must be explained that although a certain oumber of Extra-Deputy Convervators have been allotted to the Lower Provinces of Bengal, to Assam, and to the North-Western Provinces and Oadh respectively yet it is impossible to arrange that every grade of that class should be represented it each of the three Provincial Services. It is, therefore necessary for the present to unite these services for the purpose of promotion in the grades of Extra Deputy Conservator.

One Extra Deputy Conservator of the 3rd and one of the 4th grade have therefore been allotted to Bengal and As am jountly, and one of the 2rd and one of the 1st grade to the three services jointly Of these four appointments of Extra-Deputy Cons reator, one will be held in Assam, two in Bengal and one in the North Western Provinces, but promotions from grade to grade will, so long as the strength of the grades remains unchanged, be common to the services that are combined in each case, and will, cateria parties fall to the senon officer

S Funily, it must be understood that the eight allowances of R50 per mensem to Extra-Assistant Conservators holding charge of Forest Divisions of which two are held in the Bombup, two in the Madras, and four in the Bengal Presidency, under the terms of this Department's Circular Resolution No. 18-F of 29th July 1891, are not affected by the present orders.

to say that the Government of India have only considered replies received to Circular No. 4 F, dated the 13th June last, in regard to the question whether the officiating, suh pro tem or provisionally substantive, promotion carried by a "pilot appointment" should continue to be given to in officer of the Imperial Forest Service, or whether it should in future be given to an officer of the Provincial Service They have come to the conclusion that the * Footnote to pars 5 of Circular Resolution No 17 F, existing under dated 4th November 1896

such promotion is allowed to the officer of the Imperial Service who stands on the list next below the transferred appointment, should be maintained. and that the permanently substantive step should go, as at present, to the Provincial Service only when the appointment in question is transferred permanently and not temporarily to that service

Income tax deductions

(4) is deducted as fine inflicted by the head of an office or department or by Government.

Nore -A portion of salary withheld under an order of a Court is not a sum compulsorily stopped from salary within the meaning of this clause

Provided that-

- (a) the total amounts deducted under (1), (2), and (3) do not exceed one-sixth of the salary for the year.
- (b) the claim to exemption on account of premium paid to an Insurance Company, etc., is made within six months from the last day of the financial year during which the premium was paid

The above deductions, with the exception of those under (4), are not taken into account in determining whether the income is hable to the tax, or in determining the rate at which the tax shall be levied

Norm 1 —If a his assument premium is payable in sterling, the amount to be disdicted from the gross selary etc., is the actual cost of remultance as stated by the assume or if the assume than anable to state such actual cost, the equivalent in rupees of the sterling payment calculated at the official rate of exchange for the year in whin the deduction is made

Premium paid by an officer while on leave or deputation out of India whose attended and the state of the propes of allowing an abstement of Income Tax

- 2 The amount of premium paid to a L fe lazarance Company should be deducted in one sum from the salary bull to which the receipt for the premium is attached before the calculation for the Lacome Tax is made
- 3 Income Tax is not to be deducted from advances of pay made under Article 137 clauses (a) and (b) of this Codo and under Article 64 of the Civil Service Regulat on; the deductions heng made from the gross amount of the salary bills from which the advances are recovered by instalments
- 4 Advances made to officers proceeding on Isave or duly ont of British Ind a are liable to Iucomo Tax which should be deducted in each case when the advance is made
- 5 Wien advances of pay or leave allowance for a period extending beyond the date of the officer's return to India are made in England, Income Tax should be charged on the full amount of salary from the date of return to India without about ment for advance
- 35 A deduction made from the amount of salary, person, or annuty hable to assessment, on account of payment made to a Life Insurance Company or to a Family Penson Fund (if the payment is made otherwise than by deduction from salary) must be supported either—
  - (1) by the original receipt of the Insurance Company, or
  - (2) (in the case of a deduction claimed by servant of the Government or of a local authority) by a copy of the same, presented along with the original to the officer who pays the salary, and attested by that officer, who should, after such attestation, return the original with a note endorsed npon it that it has been produced and allowed for, the copy being attached to the hill sent with the list of payments; in

(3) hy a duplicate receipt or certificate of payment given by the Insurance Company.

In cases (1) and (3) the receipt nr certificate should be forwarded with the hill to the Account Office, whence it will be returned as soon as the fact of payment is admitted in due course of audit.

Where the Forest Officer is eatisfied that none if the above prescribed documents can be produced without an amount of delay, expense or inconvenience, which, under the circumstances of the case, would be unreasonable, he may accept such other proof of payment of the premium as he may deem sufficient. He must, however, in all cases receive and adjudicate the claims to the remissions in sufficient time to prevent the payment of tills being postponed peading the adjudication.

36. If the salary, annuity, or pension amounts to R166-10-8 per measem, the amount recoverable is fee pees in the rupee, or, if less than the above, but not less than R53-5-4 per mensem, the rats is four pies in the rupee. The smoont doe on a fraction of a rupee abould he neglected. Thus the tax to be resized on a monthly relary of R166-10-8 is R 4-5-2 only. The tax is calculated in accordance with the table printed as Appendix B.

NOTE (1)—In the case of Military Hospital Assistants lent for Civil duty, no lacome Tax should be levred if the emoluments drawn in the Civil Department are no higher than those the Hospital Assistants were drawing-when in Military employ. In cases in which higher allowances are drawn in Civil employ, lacome Tax should be recovered.

37. If the salary drawn in any month is less than H83-5-4, deduction need not be made on account of the tax on the ground that the salary of other mouths has been or will be such as to hring the salary of the year up to R1,000. The tax on salary should be deducted with reference to the salary of each month separately.

Income Tax deducted from the salary of an officer whose total income during the year is found to be less than $H_0000 may be refunded at the end of the year, but the refund should be made by the officer through whom the tax was originally collected on the certificate of the Collector to the effect that the total income of the officer for the year did not amount to $H_000.

39 The head of an office when prying a salary should not question the recipient as to his other meome. He should deduct the tax solely with reference to the month's salary, nuless the Collector hrings to his notice that the recipient has pther income.

Exchange Compensation Allowance

Exchange Compensation Allowance, Extracts from the Civil Account Code,

41A This allowance is granted in accordance with the rules contained in Appendix BB It is a provisional addition to salary, calculated on the difference between the gold value of half salary at the matket rate of exchange, and its value at a privileged rate, which for the present is fixed at 16 dd per imper, subject to the condition that it shall in no case exceed in any quarter the amount of rupees by which £250 converted at the privileged rate shall fall short of the equivalent of £250 converted at the matter market rate.

14B The allowance is parable only to Europeans Eurasians, who are not statutory natives of India, are to be reckoned as Europeans, and for the purposes of the rules, Europe includes the English-speaking colonies As regards officers appointed in England, Europeans so appointed are entitled to the allowance, unless their salaries are fixed in sterling or unless they are specifically excluded from it by the terms of their engagement As regards appointments in India, the claim depends on two factors which may be described as Personal and Official eligibility. The former is secured by heing outside the class' Native of India' as defined in Statute 33 Viet , Cap 3, Section 6, to which an important privilege of appointment in India to offices corrying a salary of #200 and over save in certain excepted departments, is secured by Standing Orders of the Government of India Full a structions are contained in Government of ludy, Financial Department, Nos 2418 Ex dated 26th May 1899, and 3457 dated 31st July 1899 As regards official eligibility, the concession is limited to tho e offices in which European qualifications are held to be undispensable, or to services and departments in which a proportion of Europeans is held to be impassentable the allowance is admissible only to officers who are appointed as Duropeans and in the case of the services and departments alluded to only to those officers who are appointed for the purpose of maintaining the requisite proportion of Europeans. The Government of India alone can determine which are the offices, services and departments in which European qualifications or a proportion of Europeans are deemed to be indispensable. The question whether any officer is appointed because he is a European, and for the purpose of maintaining the proportion of Europeans is one for the decision of the Government by or under which the appointment is made.

NOTE 1—All European officers appointed in Lighted may be adouted to the allowance and Earstan as an appointed may be trated as knoppean officery as tationary Natures. In dealing with the case of Eurasian officers appointed in fingl of the initial presumption. Will be that they are exhibited to England Milosia, e.g. and the allowance should only be withheld from such an officer when it seems clear that his environmentations are such as to make in an attainty? Nature

NOTE 2 - A son of a Nature of Ind a by an English mother is 100 igible for the allowance

41B (1) Further orders of the Government of India have been issued in Financial Department Resolution No 4847 Ex., dated 5th

Exchange Compensation Allowance

App. XX.

November 1898, and No 2556 Ex. dated 5th June 1899, describing the appointments by rurine of which an officer appointed in India hecomes entitled to Exchange Compensation Allovance if not otherwise discoutled to it. These orders do not therefore render a person appointed to India eligible for the allowance, if he is a native of India, within the definition of that term in Statute, 33 Via, Chapter 3, Section 6

- 41B (2) The case of an officer transferred from a servee or appointment in which he is eligible for Exchange Compensation Allowance to one which does not carry the allowance, should be dealt with as follows So long as such an officer substantively belongs to the "hibbeservice or appointment, and merely officiates in the other, he should retain his claims, but when he is substantively transferred, he should not get the allowance it he would not have drawn it had he been originally recruited for his new services or appointment
- 41B (3) The orders issued by the Government of India on the subject of kychange Compensation Allowance apply proprie typere only to officers raid from general revenue. Their application to officers serving under Local Boards and Muoriaphities is a matter to be etitled by Local Governments so far as these bave legal and financial power to cohance the salaries of such officers. To this extent Local Governments may sanction any increase in the salaries of Local Board or Muoriaphi servants by way of exchange compensation, provided that the concessions or made in ocase exceed what such officer would have here lightle for by way of Exchange Compensation Allowance and he here serving under Government
- 41C As regards officers appointed in India on or after the 1st April 1887, a certificate of eligibility for Exchange Compessation Allowance will he granted on appointment by the Government by or under which the appointment is made. The certificate will set forth the grounds upon which the officer to whom it is granted is deemed to belong to the class of public ervants who supply the indispensable European element in the administrative hedy of Indian officials. In the case of officer appointed in India hefore the 1st of April 1837, such a certificate on appointment is not required, but the orders of the Government under which they are now serving should be obtained, as to their cligibility to receive the allowance. Only such officers as have obtained such certificates or orders can be given the full benefit of Exchange Compensation Allowance.

NOTE 1—Officers to whom Exchange Compensation would not be admissible under these roles, but who have been admitted to it under the rules previously in force, will not continue to draw it to the extent of the estances they were drawing on the list of April 1897, but any increase in their salary after that date will be taken in reduction and ultimately in extinction of the claim to the allowance

Note 2—An officer without a substantive appointment acting in Government service is not debarred from Exchange Compensation Allowance merely by reason of his bolding ooly an officiating appointment.

Frehange Compensation Allowance

- 41D Exchange Compensation Allowance is not admissible to -
  - (a) Persons temporarily appointed to the service of Government for a specified duit only, upon allowances definitely fixed for the particular case.
  - (b) Persons serving under a contract in which their allowances are definitely fixed, which is not preliminary to employment in one of the regular services of the Government and five years of service under which have not clapsed.

Note —This clause relates only to persons appointed under a written contract in Inda A European so appointed in Fegland will be critifed to Exchange Compensation Allowance it has aslary senot fixed in sterling and there is nothing in his agreement to exclude him from the allowance

- (c) Persons who are not members of any regular Service, and who are employed in a professional capacity (such as lawyers, teachers, lecturers, clergymen, medical men), without heng detarred from the private exercise of their profession.
- (d) Officers permitted to make family remittances through Government for any month in which the privilege is nearled of 41E In the case of officere whose emoluments are governed by the Caul Service Regulations, the allowance is admissible only on salary adefined in Article 33 of Regulations In the case of officers whose emoluments are governed by the Indian Army Regulations, it is admissible only on pay, Indian allonances, and Staff pay. The allowance should be calculated on the whole gross salary for the month before deduction of Income lax, Annuity and Tond deductions. The percentage is no more being talen as one rupee, and fractions of 8 annus of more being talen as one rupee, and fractions of less than 8 annus being neglected.

Deputation allowance does not come within the definition of "salary" in Article 38 of the Civil Service Regulations, and consequently Exchange Compensation is not admissible in respect of it. But if in any case deputation allowance has been specially permitted to count as salary for the National Research with the Exchange Compensation.

NOTE —The term. In August 1894, sections 123 and 127 of the Forest Department Code were amended, mainly in order to correct an erroneous impression that appeared to exist regarding the nature of the Revised Estimates of Forest expenditure and then convection with the Budget I stimates It was evidently believed in some cases that to "provide" for increased expenditure in the Revised E timites superseded the necessity of applying for an additional grant; and it was still more often thought that the submission of these Revised Estimates was the proper and only occasion for applying for an additional grant to cover expenditure which had not been provided for in the Budget Estimates The orders thus revised have, however, not been uniformly observed by Local Governments and Administrations, or by the responsible officers of the Forest Department subordinate to them, while the Government of India have had frequent occasion to notice that confusion still exists as to the object which the Revised Estimates of expenditure are designed to serve, and as to the rules regarding applications for additional grants. I am. therefore, directed to communicate the following observations for guidance

2. The Budget Estimates are passed and senetioned before the commencement of the vert to which they appl. They provide for expenditure within certain limits, and Local Governments have power, subject to well-known rules, to regulate their expenditure within these limits. Outside the elimits no expenditure of any sort whatever can properly he incurred, unless a special additional grant to cover it has been applied for and sanctioned by the Government of India

App. XXI.

Revised Estimates of Expenditure

- 3 The Revised Estimates (not Revised Budget Estimates, as they are often unproperly cilled) make no provision for any expenditure whatever, they are accepted, not sanctioned, by the Government of India, and no entry in them carries with it any authority for expenditure of any kind They do not even provide for or authorise, the expenditure of charge a already entered in the Budget Estimates, for these latter alone cosess authority. The Revised Estimates are not Builgets or appropriations of money, nor do they super ede the Budget Estimates as the lasis for the regulation of expenditure. They are estimates pure an I simple, prepared for information, in order to indicate to Government how far the expenditure ilready senctioned (12 the Budget Estimates and in subsequent additional grants of anyl will be worked up to If the figures for expenditure in the Revised Estimates exceed the total of the Budget Estimates, and of special grants already made or applied for, they clearly must be wring, and will be corrected accordingly by the Government of India, for no expenditure can be incurred that has not been canctioned, and, if it bad become apparent, before the preparation of the Revised Estimates, that expanditure in excess of existing sanction would be necessary, additional caretion would, under stands g rules, have been applied for at once

When, however the excess expenditure of the year's requirements which is made for the purposes of the Revi of Estimates discloses for the first time the nevesity for such expenditure When that is the easy-the application for an additional grant most be made at once, separately, and in a complete form, so that it may be disposed of quite spart from the Revised Tastimates. It has, undeed, no connection with those estimates, for the making of the application is a condition precedent to the inclusion of the som applied for in the estimates. In short the estimates depend on the grant, not the grant mon the estimates.

  - (2) that it could not have been foreseen when the Bulget Esti mates were prepared, or, if it could have been, it must be explained why the recessary provision was not made,
  - (3) that it connect be met by re-appropriation within the Budget Grant for forest expenditure.
  - (4) that it cannot be met by re-appropriation from the Budge' Grants under other major beads of expenditure which are controlled by the Local Government.

6. In an organization such as the Forest Department, extra expenditure may occasionally be bighly advisable, though not absolutely unavoidable. For instance, expenditure which produces revenue may have to be increased in the course of the year, and if a demand should spring up for certain forest produces, it must be most at once, or the revenue may be alterable lost. But in all cases the necessity for the proposed excess expenditure must be fully explained and justified in detail, mere general references to a probable increase in the receipts are manificated.

7 I am to request that the officers concerned may be enjoined to catefully observe these justifications

In continuation of the endorsement from this office No. dated be 28th June 1898, and with reference to pages 36 and 54 of the Inspector General's Review of Forest Administration for 1894-95, I have the honour to say that the replies to Circular No. 8, dated 26th June 1898, have not completely met the purpose that I had in view, I dested to ascertain the value of produce removed under rights, or granted free or at reduced river, in the various provinces under the beads—

Timber | firewood | Other minor forest produce | Grazing and grace.

Now it is evident that to render this information of any practical u e, some uniform method of calculating the value of produce taken away, or of the grazing permitted free or at privileged rates, should be adopted. The reprise received when that the render produce a control provinces differs very considerability, from as much as nearly HI per culne foot of timber to (in other cases) 50 cubic fact of timber per RI. In some cases the number of culne feat of timber or feat has not been given, rendering it impossible to form any idea as to how the value has been arrived at; and this courseous sole renders it impossible to draw up Chapter III of the Review as completely as I should wish (see remarks on page 45 of the Review of 1895 69). It must, I think, be admitted that much of the forest produce removed by village right-holders could not be disposed of at full market rates. Such produces often of inferior quality, and is frequently removed from localities so remde as to prevent the extraction of produce af full rates. This being so, and in order to ensure a uniform highted of calculating the value of produce removed free by right-holdes it will, I consider, be for to decide that all such produce shall be valued at half the ordinary rates paid by purchasers. In the case of grazing, this should be valued at full rates as obtaining in the locality concerned. The information may best be supplied in a table which should be drawn up in the following form.

The secured information should be furnished only in respect of the classes of forests which are actually in existence in each province. As regards Form No 59, for provinces in which any one kind of wood pussesses a special value, such as teak, sandalw rod, padouk, etc , transactions in these woods may be shown esparately from those in woods of other descriptions.

2 It has been represented that Form No. 467 is often referred to for the purpose of ascertaining the area of a pirticular forest, and the Govempent of India have, therefore, no objection to this Form being printed in its present detail every fifth year; for intervening years it should be curtailed as indicated in the Circular.

3 On further consideration, the Government of India have come to the conclusion that it would be as well to tetain column 3 in Form No. 531, the remaining information being given for each Range only. with totale for Divisions and Circles.

4. In Form No. 578 only Divisional totals should be given for each class of forests separately If desired, the outturn of the different classes of timber may be given as shown in the form of this return appended to the Reports from Burma

No 6271 A. dated Simils the 4th October 1904

RESOLUTION -By the Government of India FINANCE AND COMMERCE DEPARTMENT.

Under the system introduced by the Resolution in this Department. No 635, dated the 31st May 1876, Forest Revenue and Expenditure in all Provinces, except Madras and Bombay, are accounted for to the Comptroller and Andstor General, who conducts the necessary audit and thereafter transfers the transactions to the Accountants General and Comptrollers concerned for agjustment on their books The Comptroller General also submits the Forest Budget Estimates of the Provinces under his audit to the Government of India, by whom they are reviewed in two Departments before orders are passed.

2 Whatever might have been the ments of this system when introduced, there is no doubt that nuder present conditions such centralisation of audit involves delay in the algustment of the Forest Revenue and Expenditure in the books of the Accountants General and Comptrollers and that the review in detail of the estimates by the Government of ludes, which cannot be dispensed with so long as the present centralised eystem is maintained, throws unnecessary work on the departments concerned The Government of India have therefore decided that the Forest Revenue and Expenditure in all Provinces should, as in Madras and Bombay, be accounted for to, and audited and brought to account by, the account officer of the Province, instead of the Comptroller General. The account officers will deal with the heads IX and 11 -Forests in their estimates and accounts and the Endoet Notes inst as they deal with any other head of Revenue and Expenditure on their books, the separate estimates submitted to the Government of India being discontinued. The new system will be introduced with effect from the 1st of April 1905, the accounts for February and March 1905 and the closing of the accounts for the year 1904-05, being consequently dealt with by the account officers of each Province

3 The present Forest Branch in the Comptroller General's Office will be decentralised and the clerks employed therein will be disposed of in such mauner as the Comptroller General considers most convenient and suitable. In order to enable the account officer to deal with the increased noil, the establishment shown in the annexed proposition statement is sanctioned The Comptroller General will address the

(rovernment of India separately in regard to the gazetted staff

Ordered that a copy be forwarded to all Local Governments and Administrations (except Madras and Bombay); to the Revenue and Agriculture Department, to the Comptroller and Andstor General, and to all Accountants General and Comptrollers (except Accountants General, Malras and Bombay, and Comptroller, Post Office)

'India-General Estimates

App. XXX.

APPENDIX XXX.

Article 124 of Code

"India-General" Estimates.

Resolution of the Government of India, Finance Department Accounts and Finance, Estimates and Accounts, No 5027 A dated Simla the 9th September 1905

The Government of Indus have had under consideration the question of the preparation and submission of, and the method of dealing with, the Bidget Estimates known as the 'India' Estimates, being those of the minor provinces, and the Departments and officers directly under the Government of India. The pie ent practice is that the vanious Administrations, Heads of Departments, Residents, Political Agents, etc., prepare their Budget Estimates and submit them to the Comptroller, India Treasures, who examines each estimate, makes such alterations as are considered necessary by him in the hight of the information available in his office, and submits it to the Department of the Government of India concerned That Department, after criticising the estimate and the alterations made by the Comptroller, India Treasures, either passes it on to the Finance Department, or sends it back to the Comptroller, India Treasures with its remarks, for submission to the Finance Department. The latter Department then examines the estimate and passes orders on it

- 2. This procedure involves the examination of a number of detailed, and often petty, Budget Estimates, not only in the office of the Comptroller, India Tressuries, but in two Departments of the Government of India, and entails, in the Finance Department, an expenditure of labour which is incommensuate with the results obtained. The Government of India have therefore decided to lay down the following revised procedure for the future
  - (1) All officers who submit Budget E-timates to the Comptroller, India Treasuries, must follow the provisions of Article 155 (2) of the Civil Account Code, and should include in their Budget Estimates only those items for which specific landting or authority exists on the date of submission of the estimate Such officers will submit a duplicate copy of the Budget Listimate to the administrative Department of Government to which they are subordinate If there are any stems of expenditure which, though not sanctioned, have been already proposed, or which are likely to be sanctioned and for which provision is considered necessity, these should be included in a separate statement which should be submitted with the duplicate copy of the Budget Estimate to the administrative Department concerned. In the case of normal growth of expenditure on items already sanctioned, previous sanction or inclusion in the separate list will not be required, but in case any large increase is proposed, it should be included in the statement. A copy of the statement should also be sent to the Comptroller, India Tressuries, with the Budget Estimate

(2) The administrative Department concerned will, on receipt of this statement, give it the earliest possible consideration, and if it desires to meltide any item in the Budget Esti mate (but not otherwise) it will refer the matter to the Finance Department with a definite recommendation as to the items and amounts which it considers should be uncluded. The Finance Department will, after examining the recommendation, communicate its orders direct to the Computerlie, India Treasuries, and will also inform the Department concerned.

(8) Each administrative Department may, if it prefers, send one consolidated statement for all officers under it including all special items recommended by it for entry in the estimates. This statement must reach the Finance Department not later than the 7th January in each year. A supplementary statement may, if found absolutely necessary, be submitted, but this must reach the Finance Department not later than the 7th February.

(4) In dealing with the estimates, the Comptroller, India Tracsurines, will observe the provisions of Article 155—specially 155 (g)—of the Civil Account Code, and will stake out provision for all unsanctioned and manthorised items save as regards any new tem or items specially arthorised by the Finance Department in secondance with para 2 (2) He will furnish the administrative Department concerned with a statement showing in full detail the alternations made by him.

(5) The Comptroller, India Treasuries, will also make such changes as may be necessary with reference to his audit register and past actuals such changes will be final and should not be challenged by any Department.

(6) Except in the case of the Mints, Baluchistan and the Survey of India Department, the Budget Estimates for which will continue to be submitted to the Government of India

as at pre-ent, the snhmission of the detailed estimates by the Compfroller, India Treasuries, to the Finance or any other Department will, under the procedure above described, be unnecessary It will suffice for him to submit consolidated estimates as indicated below The Forest estimates of the provinces under "India" will be dealt with in the same way as the other estimates

- (7) The Comptroller, India Treasuries, at present submits only two editions of his estimates, while Accountants General submit three editions, are, the first edition by the 20th January, the second by the 13th February, and the last edition on or about the 10th of March The Government of India have now decided that the Comptroller, India Treasuries, shall in future submit three editions on the dates prescribed for Accountants General, the consolidated "India" Estimates heing submitted to the Finance Department with the first edition of the Budget notes on the 20th January.
- (8) In order to enable the Comptroller, India Treasuries, to submit his consolidated Bndget Estimate with the first edition of the Bndget notes on 20th January, all officers should submit their Budget Estimates in time to reach him not later than the 31st October, except in the cases mentioned in the appended list, where the dates may be as specified therein against each.
- 3 In prescribing these rules the Government of India desire to draw special attention to two points. They have observed that officers in preparing their estimates frequently lose sight of the provisions of Article 155 (2) of the Civil Account Code and budget for various items of unanationed and unanthorised expenditure—a practice which addigrently to the bhoar of examining the Budget Estimates. It will be seen from para 2 (4) that the Comptroller, India Treasuries, has been authorised to strike out provision for all unsanctioned items save such as have been specially anthorised for inclusion by the Finance Department. It spending officers are careful to obtain the necessary sanction to new expenditure some time before the preparation of the Budget, this will not only save them from the disappointment which the excision of such tems may cause, but will at the same time considerably lighten the task of ceritinising the estimates.
- 4 The other point on which the Government of India would lay special emphasis is the observance of punctuality in the submission of estimates. It should be borne in mind that the Government of India have to present the Imperial Budget on a fixed day and that default on the part of any of the estimating officers to submit their Budgets on due dates imposes a severe strain on all concerned in the final consolidation of the estimates. The Government of India therefore desire to impress upon all officers and departments concerned the necessity of submitting their estimates to the Comptroller, India Treasuries, not later than the dates now prescubed

Ordered that the Resolution be communicated to all the Departments of the Government of India, to the Head Commissioner of Paper Currency, to the Mint and Assay Masters, Calcutta; to the Commissioner, Northern India Salt Revenue, to the Compiteller and Auditor General, and to the Compiteller, India Traesuries
